MANY HURT IN ILLINOIS MINE TOWN RIOTS

AMUNDSEN'S CRAFT NOW ON WAY TO NOME

Exploration Ship, Bound Fast In Ice Through Last Winter North Of Siberia, Frees Self--Send Aid To U. S. Cutter Bear, Ashore In Bering Strait.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The steamer Maude, exploration ship of Capt. Roald Amundsen, bound in the ice through last winter in the Arctic ocean, north of Siberia, has freed herself and set out for Nome, Alaska.

This news of the Maude, which steamed from Seattle, June 30, 1922, to drift over the North Pole, was received today by the Seattle harbor radio in a message from the steamship Oduna of the Alaska Steamship Co., in the Bering sea.

The Oduna had received a message from the Maude saying the Maude was off East Cape, Siberia. East Cape is the eastern tip of Asia on the west side of Bering strait.

Veteran Cutter Aground.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The steamer Oduna of the Alaska Steamship Co., early today was hastening to the cutter Bear, veteran of the United States coast guard, ashore in Bering strait.

The Oduna, in a message received by the Seattle harbor radio, said that she expected to reach the Bear at 4 o'clock this morning.

The Oduna left Nome for Cape Prince of Wales, where the Bear was caught, at noon yesterday.

Cape Prince of Wales is 300 to 500 miles steaming distance through the Bering strait from Nome.

The Oduna reported that she learned of the Bear's plight through a signal from the cutter.

Another Cutter To Rescue.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The coast guard cutter Algonquin has gone to the assistance of the cutter Bear, ashore on the Alaskan coast, the navy department was advised today by the commandant of the naval district at San Francisco.

A wireless message from the Bear, received at San Francisco, said the vessel was pounding slightly.

PROGRESS IN DEBT PARLEY

Discussion Wih Belgian Mission Reaches Point Where Actual Terms Of Proposed Settlement Are Under Examination.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Some progress was made today in the Belgian debt funding negotiations. The discussion reached the point where actual terms of a proposed settlement were under examination.

There were indications that the way had been found not quite as smooth as expected, but the commissioners still appeared optimistic.

SLAIN WOMAN NOT IDENTIFIED

FIND MEAGER CLUES.

CARLISLE, Ia., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Officials investigating the death of a woman, as yet unidentified, whose charred body was found in a partly burned hay stack near here recently, today had six meager clues upon which they are basing hope in solving the mystery of her killing.

Their first step in piecing together the story of how she was killed and who killed the woman, will be the complete identification of the body, the officers said, and to this end they have listed the following, found around the straw stack, as articles that might bring someone to light who knew the girl, or of incidents leading to the tragedy:

An ice pick; an old fashioned brooch; a few pearl beads; a bit of pink ribbon they believed was used as a wrist watch strap; a tuft of red hair, and the woman's teeth.

Dawes Fight On Senate Rules to West Coast Next

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—The fight of Vice President Dawes for revision of the senate rules will probably be carried next to the Pacific coast. Tentative plans have been made for speeches in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles some time in September.

Tanned and hardened by fishing and broncho riding in Colorado, the vice president returned yesterday to his desk at the Central Trust Co. offices.

Pickford Case Verdict Is To Come Shortly

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—With arguments to the jury slated to begin today, attorneys in the Mary Pickford kidnaping case predicted a verdict before the end of the week.

Yesterday's session was featured by the appearance on the witness stand of Louis Geck, police informer, whom the three defendants accuse of engineering the "plot" to kidnap Miss Pickford as part of a publicity scheme to shed glory upon two detectives anxious to win fame as the protectors of the celebrated film actress.

Geck was called to the stand immediately after the defense had completed its case, and in rebuttal testimony for the state laid the entire kidnaping plot at the door of Charles Stephens, one of the three defendants. He said Stephens had suggested kidnaping Jackie Coogan, Baby Peggy, the grandchild of E. L. Doheny, and finally Miss Pickford.

BOY ADMITS HE SLEW FOR AUTO

BODY IS FOUND.

LAMONTE, Mo., Aug 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—A body believed to be that of Adam Clawson of Lodi, N. Y., was found in a ditch near a hedge on the farm of George Myers, four miles southwest of Lamonte today. An inquest will be held tomorrow

The body was found by road workers in weeds along a highway. It was taken to Lamonte and turned over to the coroner. Some papers, including travelers' checks totaling $200, were found on the body.

SEEK VICTIM'S BODL.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Search was under way today along highways west of California, Mo., for the body of Adam Clawson, 43, of Cedarhurst, N. Y., a school teacher. Authorities at Garden City, Kas., are holding a youth who calls himself "Fred Jordan," and who has confessed that he slew Clawson after the latter had given him a "lift in his coupe."

The youth, who yesterday confessed to having murdered Clawson, was arrested in Garden City August 3 when officers there became suspicious of the blood stained car he was driving.

The car was identified by its license plates but up until yesterday the boy denied any knowledge of Clawson.

Seek Tourist; Relative Dead

Viola Bentz of Norfolk called police headquarters at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday in an attempt to communicate with W. J. McGinty and family, who are motoring in this part of the state. According to the telephone message, Mrs. McGinty's sister died at Norfolk at 6:45 p. m. Tuesday, and efforts are being made to relay this information to Mrs. McGinty who, it was believed, would be found at the tourists' camp.

Warned Against Hunting In Field

Hunting in the fields north of the state fair grounds and east of Twenty-seventh street, yielded one rabbit and much trouble for Peter Jesus, 28, and Esteran Garsilaso, 35, who were released with a warning Wednesday morning. Frank Weygant and John Jones, state deputy sheriffs were notified that two men were shooting among cattle in a field there. In a nearby field a farmer was working, the complainant said. The deputies say they found the two Mexicans with a .22 rifle, a supply of ammunition and one rabbit.

MAN ENDS OWN LIFE IN ROOM

Bror H. Martenson, 114 South Thirteenth Street, Shoots Self In Head With .22 Calibre Pistol Tuesday Night.

BODY IS FOUND BY SIMEON BEARDSLEY

Was Financially Independent And No Known Reason For Act; Had Just Returned From Trip to National Capital.

Bror H. Martenson, a laborer, shot himself through the temple sometime Tuesday evening at his rooming house at 114 South Thirteenth street. He was about 38 years old and was thought to have been insane.

Martenson held a gun in each hand and fired the shot from a .22 caliber automatic pistol that he held in his right hand. The other, a similar gun, had not been fired and was still clutched in his hand when he was found at 8:50 Wednesday morning by Simeon Beardsley, the landlord. The gun that had been fired lay at Martenson's feet on the floor. He had slippde from the bed immediately after firing the shot, apparently.

Tag On Pistol.

On the gun he used was a tag. On one side was written "Ruth Olson, Chappell, Neb.," and on the other side "John Johnson, Chappell, Neb."

Lack of money could not have been the cause of the suicide, as Martenson had several thousand dollars deposited in a number of banks and was financially independent. He had $185 in a small valuables box in his room.

Before killing himself Martenson had carefully torn up all pictures of himself and his friends.

A copy of The Lincoln Star, containing an account of the execution of Walter R. Simmons, lay on the bed beside the body.

He returned Monday night at 2 o'clock from St. Paul, Minn., and Washington, D. C. He had roomed at the same place, with intervals in which he took trips, for several months.

Did Not Hear Shot.

Tony Renteria, a tailor whose room was across the hall from Martenson's heard no shot.

Other roomers had told Mr Beardsley that Martenson moaned and raved at night, the landlord stated.

Martenson, who was about 38 years old, came from Sweden several years ago. He had worked at a local greenhouse for a time but ordinarily he was not employed.

He had no relatives in this country, as far as is known.

The body was taken to Wadlow's. It will be held there for a few days to see if any relatives are located.

No inquest will be held, it is thought. This recommendation will be made by Deputy Sheriffs Ira Vorhies and E. C. Ward, who made an investigation.

Vorhies called officers at Chappell to locate Ruth Olson and John Johnson, whose names were on the gun.

MRS. SCOTT SAYS SOLON MADE THREAT

Wife Of Congressman Frank D. Scott Testifies At Divorce Trial That Latter Declared He Would Blacken Her Reputation.

DENIES BEING FRIENDLY WITH AN ARMY CAPTAIN

Former Employe Of a Washington Hotel Charges Woman Often Entertained Man Guest At Hostelry In Her Room.

ALPENA, Mich., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mrs. Edna J. Scott, testifying at the divorce trial brought by her husband, Congressman Frank D. Scott, today declared that on the eve of their separation in 1922, Scott had threatened to blacken her reputation.

"I'll drag your skirts through the mud so that no one will want to look at you," she quoted him as saying.

Under cross examination, Mrs. Scott denied she had attempted to influence Mrs. Frederick Zihlman, wife of a Maryland congressman, not to make any deposition in the case. Mrs. Zihlman was aboard the steamer Cristobal on its congressional cruise to Panama.

She also denied ever having been unduly friendly with Cap. Wilbur Summer or with anyone else.

A charge that she had consulted former Congressman Joseph W.

Takes Own Life During the Night

H. MARTENSON.

The body of H. Martenson, about 40 years old, was found on the floor beside the bed in his room, Wednesday at 114 South Thirteenth street. A pistol was clutched in his left hand and a second lay on the floor beside the body. He had no known relatives here.

RAINS IN EAST PART OF STATE

Fall Heaviest In Southern Part; Extends As Far West As Valentine.

The eastern part of Nebraska was drenched again Tuesday night with the second downpour in less than forty-eight hours. Last night's rain was less heavy than that of Monday night but added considerable moisture to that now stored up in the soil.

While Lincoln received more moisture Monday night than any other part of the state, the precipitation records Tuesday night were claimed by Ashland, Aurora and Wymore. The weather bureau's report showed only .30 of an inch of rain in Lincoln last night. The Lincoln Telephone company reported a half inch rain at Wahoo and good showers between that place and Lincoln.

The Burlington reported continued showers over its Omaha division with a half inch at O'Neill and light showers on the Schuyler line. Good rains were reported from Ashland north to Sioux City. The precipitation between Lincoln and Kenesaw averaged from a fourth to a half inch. Two inches of rain was received at Wymore and one inch at Rulo.

Following is the official rainfall tabulation for the last twenty-four hours, given out by the U. S. weather bureau:

Ashland	1.21	Holdrege	.06
Auburn	1.27	Lincoln	.30
Broken Bow	.12	North Loup	.8?
Columbus	.28	North Platte	0
Culbertson	.21	Oakdale	.28
Fairbury	.45	Omaha	.54
Fairmont	.04	O'Neill	.44
Grand Isl	.31	Tekamah	.42
Hartington	.18	Red Cloud	0
Hastings	0	Valentino	.02

Phone Firm May Sell Red Cloud Property

Consolidation of the two telephone exchanges at Red Cloud, the Farmers Telephone Co., of that place buying the plant of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co., has been agreed upon between the two corporations, and awaits only the approval of the state railway commission. A letter signed by President S. W. Frisbie of the Farmers Co. and General Manager R. E. Mattison of the Lincoln concern, asks that body to ratify the deal.

The purchase price, it is stated, will not exceed $15,000. The Farmers Co., wants to issue $25,000 of new stock, from the proceeds of which payment is to be made for the other exchange. The company was organized in 1907 and has never paid any dividends. The stockholders paid $12 to $27 per share for their holdings, shares being of $50 par value. There is $18,-$00 of stock now outstanding.

ROBBERS KILL A MAN AT OMAHA

Fuller Fatally Shot When He Surprises Trio At His Home.

OMAHA, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Charles Fuller, 43, was shot and killed last night by one of three men he surprised holding up Mamie Fredericks, said by police to be Fuller's common law wife, at the house in which they lived and to which the trio of men had come to buy liquor.

The Fredericks woman admitted selling liquor, police allege. When the men finished drinking, one drew a gun and forced her to give up $360 hidden in her stocking.

The trio escaped.

CALLS POLICE; IS ARRESTED

J. C. Oswald, David City, Arrested On Bad Check Charge When He Telephones Police Was Robbed of Car and Money West of City.

TAKEN TO SEWARD ON SECOND FRAUD CLAIM

Say Due There to Settle $200 No-fund Check; Must Serve 30 Days In Jail Here For Passing One at Lincoln Store.

J. C. Oswald of David City Tuesday afternoon called police and told a story of being robbed of his money and his automobile on the road a mile west of Capitol Beach. Authorities who scoured the territory hunting for the robber arrested Oswald instead. There was no trace of thieves, they said.

Wednesday morning Oswald was sentenced to thirty days in the Lancaster county jail for passing a bad check for $7.95 at the Gold & Co. store here July 21. No sooner had he reached the jail than Sheriff Scott appeared and started back with him to Seward, where, it is said, a felony charge is pending against Oswald in connection with an alleged bad check for $200. He had been under bond to return and settle for the check at Seward Tuesday, it was stated. When he is released at Seward, Oswald will be brought back to Lincoln to serve out his sentence here.

Wanted in Other Towns.

Other towns that are said to be looking for Oswald are Fremont, where he is said to have a bad check for $120, and Schuyler, where he said he owed $90. He was in the custody of Sheriff Roberts at David City a short time ago on a bad check charge, it was said by police.

Oswald still affirmed that he had been robbed, when questioned Wednesday morning. A man giving the name of Alvin Thomas paid Oswald $25 and promised $12.50 more to buy Oswald's 1913 model automobile, the latter stated. When they drove out west of town, Thomas pulled a gun and took $50 and the car, leaving him in the road, Oswald said. Lincoln police were inclined to doubt that Oswald had $50, because of private advices to the effect that he "touched" a friend in Lincoln for $5 Tuesday noon.

Oswald's car was out of gas when found Tuesday evening by state and county officers who responded to the highway robbery alarm sent in by Oswald from the farm home of James Lococo. The car was about a mile from where Oswald was found. He had been under bond to be in Seward by noon Tuesday, he said.

FOUNDATION PLAN FOR HOTEL HERE

Officer of Firm Building Cornhusker Hotel Says Progress Satisfactory.

E. A. Jennings, vice president of the Gauger-Korsmo Construction company, builder of the Cornhusker hotel at Thirteenth and M streets, arrived in Lincoln Monday afternoon for a stay of a few days. He brought plans for the foundations with him. Drawings of the portion above ground are not yet completed. They will probably be ready within ten days, he said, when some minor changes asked by the operator have been arranged.

A building permit for the foundations probably will be applied for separately, says Mr. Jennings. Work has been retarded a little by the recent rains, but Mr. Jennings is pleased with the general progress made. A portion of the excavation has been pushed down 12 feet, as far as needed, and forms for part of the concrete work may be placed this week. Part of the basement must be dug 16 1-2 feet, however, and not much pouring of concrete is anticipated before next week. Steel for the superstructure has already been shipped and should arrive shortly.

Catches Rat By Tail; Kills It With Foot

A huge rat that had been gnawing window casings in the basement of the courthouse was killed by County Agent Purbaugh this morning when he caught it by the tail as it was escaping through a hole in the wall.

The rat, it is thought, had gnawed the wood in an effort to escape.

Mr. Purbaugh noticed it as it ran across the floor to the hole. He caught it by the tail and threw it to the floor, killing it by stepping on it.

SURPLUS MONEY FOR ASSEMBLY

Epworth League to More Than Break Even For First Time In Some Years.

Name Executive Committee For Next Year—Chicago Judge Is Speaker.

The rain of Tuesday night cut Wednesday morning attendance at the Epworth Assembly considerably, but officers expected at least as large an audience for the afternoon and evening programs of the closing day as came to the grounds Monday.

Nine members of the board of directors were elected at the annual delegated convention of the Nebraska Conference Epworth league Wednesday at 9 a. m., and the other two members were to be chosen at another business meeting following the afternoon program.

The assembly this year will more than break even, for the first time in several years, the financial report read Wednesday morning indicated. It was estimated the surplus would be about $500 or $600.

Committee Makes Report.

At Tuesday afternoon's business session a special committee of nine reported on the assembly's future policy, that it would be continued in its present form, but with greater stress on the religious side, and that it would be financially stabilized each year by an advance season ticket sale.

About 1,200 season tickets have been sold so far for next year's assembly, W. Edgar Gates, secretary, said Wednesday morning. These are in addition to automobile and children's tickets, of which no accurate count has been made. An active campaign will be made in churches of the state sometime before next summer to carry out the policy determined upon Tuesday, he said.

Members elected Wednesday morning to the new board are:

Board of Directors Elected.

E. M. Avery, University Place; C. A. Fulmer, Lincoln, W. Edgar Gates, Lincoln; Rev. F. F. Travis, Lincoln; Rev. W. C. Kelly, Cambridge; Rev. A. J. Croft, University Place; Rev. F. E. Sala, University Place; Rev. J. E. Johnson, Saronville, and A. J. Stenten, Papillion.

Dr. E. G. Cutshall delivered the closing sermon of the gathering at 11 a. m., Wednesday, and conducted the Bible conference at 9.

Dr. Corwin Taylor, recently returned from fifteen years in Korea, was to speak at 2 p. m., and Judge Frank P. Sadler of the Chicago Municipal court on "The City, the Storm Center of the Nation," at 3:30.

The Women's Home Missionary society rally was the official designation of the afternoon program.

The Davies' Opera company presented a program at 2:30, and were to give the full opera, "Olivette" in the evening, at the closing program.

Indians Rights To Hunt and Fish Knotty Problem

Are Indians living on government reservations in Nebraska required to take out fishing and hunting licenses before they can indulge in those sports? Do the state game and fish laws apply within the areas where other branches of civil administration are in the hands of United States officials?

State Agriculture Secretary McLaughlin doesn't know the answers to these inquiries, propounded to him in a letter from Supt. F. T. Mann of the Winnebago reservation, writing from the town of Winnebago. McLaughlin will ask the attorney general's office to help him figure it out.

An Indian would, of course, have to take out a license to fish or hunt anywhere outside of a reservation.

Patient at State Hospital Escapes But Is Returned

An inmate of the state hospital for the insane, escaped from that institution sometime early Wednesday morning and was found wandering through the fields about eleven miles southwest of Lincoln shortly before noon today.

A farmer living in that vicinity noticed the man's peculiar actions and notified the state sheriff's office. Deputy Sheriff Hassan went out to investigate and took the patient into custody. On the way back to Lincoln, officers from the hospital were met and the man was turned over to them.

Dr. B. G. Griffiths said that Cremvsell had been put to work in the dairy barns at 3:30 o'clock this morning and had escaped a short time after that.

Arrested On Charge Of Having Narcotics

George Stevenson and Dewey Hughes, two transients who say they live in Kansas City, were arraigned Wednesday morning before U. S. Commissioner Whitmore on charges alleging possession of narcotics. They were arrested at Geneva, Neb., and brought to Lincoln Tuesday afternoon.

Both men admitted they are dope addicts but only one admits having had the morphine in his possession Commissioner Whitmore continued their hearing until Friday when the government will have witnesses here to identify the one on whom the drugs was found. They are being held at the county jail pending the hearing.

'RED' FACTION BLAMED FOR A SERIOUS CLASH

Three Labor Officials In Hospital, One Miner Dying And Score Injured At Zeigler As Result Of Three Day "Wild Cat" Strike.

ZEIGLER, Ill., Aug. 12.—(I. N. S.)—Three labor officials lie wounded in hospitals of neighboring towns today, one miner is reported dying and at least twenty men were injured, the result of a night of rioting here that came as the culmination to a three day "wild cat" coal mine strike.

The wounded: Lon Fox, president sub district No. 9, United Mine Workers of America; E. C. Cobs, vice president of sub district No. 9; Hissie Hindman, president of the West Frankfort labor assembly; Mike Sarazich, dying, shot through the abdomen.

The twenty or more men injured were treated and released.

Fox and Cobs were beaten and stabbed. Hindman was shot through the groin.

Three arrests had been made today by authorities who report the situation is "well in hand" and that no outside aid will be necessary.

Ellis Harris, Bert and Oscar Farthing, brothers, all miners, were arrested, charged with carrying concealed weapons and inciting a riot.

Strike Not Sanctioned.

According to Zeigler authorities, the riots started after the labor officials had arrived to attend a meeting called by the striking miners and protested the strike, which was called by the local union, without the sanction of the sub district chiefs.

The sub district offices had deposed the Zeigler union heads for the strike call and their appearance at the miners' hall precipitated the general disorders and free-for-all fight.

The doors of the meeting hall were locked and turmoil followed. Lights were shot out, while knives and guns were brought into play in the darkness. According to Benton authorities, disorders have been feared in Zeigler for months where a communist organization admittedly thrives.

The foreign communist element in the mines here, that employ 1,100 men, outnumber the American residents by 25 to 1, Sheriff White of Benton, said.

GOTHAM FIRMS TAKE STEPS TO STOP BURGLARY

Numberous Robberies Force Insurance Rates to High Mark.

Special Guards and Protective Systems Are Being Installed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—While the National Crime commission is arousing public opinion to the end that New York may be made safer for New Yorkers and their possessions, and the Fifth Avenue association is clamoring for 2,000 additional police, there is an economic factor that is working overtime to the same end. This is the mounting rate for burglary insurance.

The immediate result has been to cause many financial houses and merchandising establishments to set up defenses of their own.

For obvious reasons not much is said publicly about this private protection, but a tour through that part of Manhattan, south of Times Square reveals an extraordinary situation and suggests that the business of robbery and burglary in the future may be as hazardous a risk for criminals as it has been for the insurance companies.

The most notable departure has been that on the part of the Furriers' Security alliance, the members of which have been especially hard hit. Two recent robberies each netted the thieves loot of $150,000. Insurance companies have in some cases cancelled policies on fur stocks.

Squad of Sharpshooters.

The alliance has organized a squad of sharpshooters composed of ex-service men and these supplement the patrol of the wholesale fur district lying generally in the vicinity of the Pensylvania station.

Silk and velvet dealers occupying a half mile along Madison and Fourth avenues, have added to the number of their private watchmen, and in addition, almost without exception, have connected their establishments by electric alarm signals with private agencies who maintain automobile patrols to respond to signals.

Private detective agencies are reaping a harvest by furnishing special guards for jewelry firms in the theater and shopping district.

Police records for July show:

Six murders.

Twenty major robberies aggregating a loss of $600,000.

Forty-odd thefts each under $1,000.

WIDOW OF BRYAN FROWNS ON PLAN

COCOANUT GROVE, Fla., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mrs. William Jennings Bryan has never heard of Miss Dionessa Bryan Evans and has never lent her approval to Miss Evans' announced plans to establish a national memorial to the Commoner at Clewiston, Fla., the widow of the fundamentalist leader told the Associated Press last night.

Miss Evans, characterized as Mr. Bryan's "god-daughter," was quoted in New York dispatches yesterday as saying that the widow had approved the selection of the site on the southwest shore of Lake Okeechobee for the monument to the former secretary of state.

Mrs. Bryan in her statement said:

"The statement of Miss Dionessa Bryan Evans, that I approve of the selection which she has made for a Bryan memorial, appears in this evening's Associated Press report. I am compelled to say that I do not know the young lady, never heard of her and have never lent my approval to anything which she has suggested.

"Tentative plans were made in Washington by prominent and lifelong friends of Mr. Bryan looking toward a suitable memorial in Washington."

AMUNDSEN'S CRAFT NOW ON WAY TO NOME

Exploration Ship, Bound Fast In Ice Through Last Winter North Of Siberia, Frees Self--Send Aid To U. S. Cutter Bear, Ashore In Bering Strait.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The steamer Maude, exploration ship of Capt. Roald Amundsen, bound in the ice through last winter in the Arctic ocean, north of Siberia, has freed herself and set out for Nome, Alaska.

This news of the Maude, which steamed from Seattle, June 30, 1922, to drift over the North Pole, was received today by the Seattle harbor radio in a message from the steamship Oduna of the Alaska Steamship Co., in the Bering sea.

The Oduna had received a message from the Maude saying the Maude was off East Cape, Siberia. East Cape is the eastern tip of Asia on the west side of Bering strait.

Veteran Cutter Aground.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The steamer Oduna of the Alaska Steamship Co., early today was hastening to the cutter Bear, veteran of the United States coast guard, ashore in Bering strait.

The Oduna, in a message received by the Seattle harbor radio, said that she expected to reach the Bear at 4 o'clock this morning.

The Oduna left Nome for Cape Prince of Wales, where the Bear was caught, at noon yesterday.

Cape Prince of Wales is 300 to 500 miles steaming distance through the Bering strait from Nome.

The Oduna reported that she learned of the Bear's plight through a signal from the cutter.

Another Cutter To Rescue.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The coast guard cutter Algonquin has gone to the assistance of the cutter Bear, ashore on the Alaskan coast, the navy department was advised today by the commandant of the naval district at San Francisco.

A wireless message from the Bear, received at San Francisco, said the vessel was pounding slightly.

Dawes Fight On Senate Rules to West Coast Next

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—The fight of Vice President Dawes for revision of the senate rules will probably be carried next to the Pacific coast. Tentative plans have been made for speeches in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles some time in September.

Tanned and hardened by fishing and broncho riding in Colorado, the vice president returned yesterday to his desk at the Central Trust Co. offices.

Pickford Case Verdict Is To Come Shortly

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—With arguments to the jury slated to begin today, attorneys in the Mary Pickford kidnaping case predicted a verdict before the end of the week.

Yesterday's session was featured by the appearance on the witness stand of Louis Geck, police informer, whom the three defendants accuse of engineering the "plot" to kidnap Miss Pickford as part of a publicity scheme to shed glory upon two detectives anxious to win fame as the protectors of the celebrated film actress.

Geck was called to the stand immediately after the defense had completed its case, and in rebuttal testimony for the state laid the entire kidnaping plot at the door of Charles Stephens, one of the three defendants. He said Stephens had suggested kidnaping Jackie Coogan, Baby Peggy, the grandchild of E. L. Doheny, and finally Miss Pickford.

BODY IS FOUND.

LAMONTE, Mo., Aug 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—A body believed to be that of Adam Clawson of Lodi, N. Y., was found in a ditch near a hedge on the farm of George Myers, four miles southwest of Lamonte today. An inquest will be held tomorrow

The body was found by road workers in weeds along a highway. It was taken to Lamonte and turned over to the coroner. Some papers, including travelers' checks totaling $200, were found on the body.

SEEK VICTIM'S BODL.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Search was under way today along highways west of California, Mo., for the body of Adam Clawson, 43, of Cedarhurst, N. Y., a school teacher. Authorities at Garden City, Kas., are holding a youth who calls himself "Fred Jordan," and who has confessed that he slew Clawson after the latter had given him a "lift in his coupe."

The youth, who yesterday confessed to having murdered Clawson, was arrested in Garden City August 3 when officers there became suspicious of the blood stained car he was driving.

The car was identified by its license plates but up until yesterday the boy denied any knowledge of Clawson.

Seek Tourist; Relative Dead

Viola Bentz of Norfolk called police headquarters at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday in an attempt to communicate with W. J. McGinty and family, who are motoring in this part of the state. According to the telephone message, Mrs. McGinty's sister died at Norfolk at 6:45 p. m. Tuesday, and efforts are being made to relay this information to Mrs. McGinty ,who, it was believed, would be found at the tourists' camp.

Warned Against Hunting In Field

Hunting in the fields north of the state fair grounds and east of Twenty-seventh street, yielded one rabbit and much trouble for Peter Jesus, 28, and Esteran Garsilaso, 35, who were released with a warning Wednesday morning. Frank Weygant and John Jones, state deputy sheriffs were notified that two men were shooting among cattle in a field there. In a nearby field a farmer was working, the complainant said. The deputies say they found the two Mexicans with a .22 rifle, a supply of ammunition and one rabbit.

MAN ENDS OWN LIFE IN ROOM

Bror H. Martenson, 114 South Thirteenth Street, Shoots Self In Head With .22 Calibre Pistol Tuesday Night.

BODY IS FOUND BY SIMEON BEARDSLEY

Bror H. Martenson, a laborer, shot himself through the temple sometime Tuesday evening at his rooming house at 114 South Thirteenth street. He was about 38 years old and was thought to have been insane.

Martenson held a gun in each hand and fired the shot from a .22 caliber automatic pistol that he held in his right hand. The other, a similar gun, had not been fired and was still clutched in his hand when he was found at 8:50 Wednesday morning by Simeon Beardsley, the landlord. The gun that had been fired lay at Martenson's feet on the floor. He had slippde from the bed immediately after firing the shot, apparently.

Tag On Pistol.

On the gun he used was a tag. On one side was written "Ruth Olson, Chappell, Neb.," and on the other side "John Johnson, Chappell, Neb."

Lack of money could not have been the cause of the suicide, as Martenson had several thousand dollars deposited in a number of banks and was financially independent. He had $185 in a small valuables box in his room.

Before killing himself Martenson had carefully torn up all pictures of himself and his friends.

A copy of The Lincoln Star, containing an account of the execution of Walter R. Simmons, lay on the bed beside the body.

He returned Monday night at 2 o'clock from St. Paul, Minn., and Washington, D. C. He had roomed at the same place, with intervals in which he took trips, for several months.

Did Not Hear Shot.

Tony Renteria, a tailor whose room was across the hall from Martenson's heard no shot.

Other roomers had told Mr. Beardsley that Martenson moaned and raved at night, the landlord stated.

Martenson, who was about 38 years old, came from Sweden several years ago. He had worked at a local greenhouse for a time but ordinarily he was not employed.

He had no relatives in this country, as far as is known.

The body was taken to Wadlow's. It will be held there for a few days to see if any relatives are located.

No inquest will be held, it is thought. This recommendation will be made by Deputy Sheriffs Ira Vorhies and E. C. Ward, who made an investigation.

Vorhies called officers at Chappell to locate Ruth Olson and John Johnson, whose names were on the gun.

MRS. SCOTT SAYS SOLON MADE THREAT

Wife Of Congressman Frank D. Scott Testifies At Divorce Trial That Latter Declared He Would Blacken Her Reputation.

DENIES BEING FRIENDLY WITH AN ARMY CAPTAIN

Former Employe Of a Washington Hotel Charges Woman Often Entertained Man Guest At Hostelry In Her Room.

ALPENA, Mich., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mrs. Edna J. Scott, testifying at the divorce trial brought by her husband, Congressman Frank D. Scott, today declared that on the eve of their separation in 1922, Scott had threatened to blacken her reputation.

"I'll drag your skirts through the mud so that no one will want to look at you," she quoted him as saying.

Under cross examination, Mrs. Scott denied she had attempted to influence Mrs. Frederick Zihlman, wife of a Maryland congressman, not to make any deposition in the case. Mrs. Zihlman was aboard the steamer Cristobal on its congressional cruise to Panama.

She also denied ever having been unduly friendly with Cap. Wilbur Summer or with anyone else.

A charge that she had consulted former Congressman Joseph W.

Takes Own Life During the Night

H. MARTENSON.

The body of H. Martenson, about 40 years old, was found on the floor beside the bed in his room, Wednesday at 114 South Thirteenth street. A pistol was clutched in his left hand and a second lay on the floor beside the body. He had no known relatives here.

RAINS IN EAST PART OF STATE

Fall Heaviest In Southern Part; Extends As Far West As Valentine.

The eastern part of Nebraska was drenched again Tuesday night with the second downpour in less than forty-eight hours. Last night's rain was less heavy than that of Monday night but added considerable moisture to that now stored up in the soil.

While Lincoln received more moisture Monday night than any other part of the state, the precipitation records Tuesday night were claimed by Ashland, Aurora and Wymore. The weather bureau's report showed only .30 of an inch of rain in Lincoln last night. The Lincoln Telephone company reported a half inch rain at Wahoo and good showers between that place and Lincoln.

The Burlington reported continued showers over its Omaha division with a half inch at O'Neill and light showers on the Schuyler line. Good rains were reported from Ashland north to Sioux City. The precipitation between Lincoln and Kenesaw averaged from a fourth to a half inch. Two inches of rain was received at Wymore and one inch at Rulo.

Following is the official rainfall tabulation for the last twenty-four hours, given out by the U. S. weather bureau:

Ashland	1.21	Holdrege	.06
Auburn	1.27	Lincoln	.30
Broken Bow	.12	North Loup	.80
Columbus	.28	North Platte	0
Culbertson	.21	Oakdale	.38
Fairbury	.45	Omaha	.54
Fairmont	.04	O'Neill	.44
Grand Isl.	.31	Tekamah	.42
Hartington	.18	Red Cloud	0
Hastings	0	Valentine	.02

Phone Firm May Sell Red Cloud Property

Consolidation of the two telephone exchanges at Red Cloud, the Farmers Telephone Co., of that place buying the plant of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co., has been agreed upon between the two corporations, and awaits only the approval of the state railway commission. A letter signed by President S. W. Frisbie of the Farmers Co. and General Manager R. E. Mattison of the Lincoln concern, asks that body to ratify the deal.

The purchase price, it is stated, will not exceed $15,000. The Farmers Co., wants to issue $25,000 of new stock, from the proceeds of which payment is to be made for the other exchange. The company was organized in 1907 and has never paid any dividends. The stockholders paid $12 to $27 per share for their holdings, shares being of $50 par value. There is $18,000 of stock now outstanding.

ROBBERS KILL A MAN AT OMAHA

Fuller Fatally Shot When He Surprises Trio At His Home.

OMAHA, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Charles Fuller, 43, was shot and killed last night by one of three men he surprised holding up Mame Fredericks, said by police to be Fuller's common law wife, at the house in which they lived and to which the trio of men had come to buy liquor.

The Fredericks woman admitted selling liquor, police allege. When the men finished drinking, one drew a gun and forced her to give up $360 hidden in her stocking.

The trio escaped.

CALLS POLICE; IS ARRESTED

J. C. Oswald, David City, Arrested On Bad Check Charge When He Telephones Police Was Robbed of Car and Money West of City.

TAKEN TO SEWARD ON SECOND FRAUD CLAIM

Say Due There to Settle $200 No-fund Check; Must Serve 30 Days In Jail Here For Passing One at Lincoln Store.

J. C. Oswald of David City Tuesday afternoon called police and told a story of being robbed of his money and his automobile on the road a mile west of Capitol Beach. Authorities who scoured the territory hunting for the robber arrested Oswald instead. There was no trace of thieves, they said.

Wednesday morning Oswald was sentenced to thirty days in the Lancaster county jail for passing a bad check for $7.95 at the Gold & Co. store here July 21. No sooner had he reached the jail than Sheriff Scott appeared and started back with him to Seward, where, it is said, a felony charge is pending against Oswald in connection with an alleged bad check for $200. He had been under bond to return and settle for the check at Seward Tuesday, it was stated. When he is released at Seward, Oswald will be brought back to Lincoln to serve out his sentence here.

Wanted in Other Towns.

Other towns that are said to be looking for Oswald are Fremont, where he is said to have a bad check for $120, and Schuyler, where he said he owed $90. He was in the custody of Sheriff Roberts at David City a short time ago on a bad check charge, it was said by police.

Oswald still affirmed that he had been robbed, when questioned Wednesday morning. A man giving the name of Alvin Thomas paid Oswald $25 and promised $12.50 more to buy Oswald's 1913 model automobile, the latter stated. When they drove out west of town, Thomas pulled a gun and took $50 and the car, leaving him in the road, Oswald said. Lincoln police were inclined to doubt that Oswald had $50, because of private advices to the effect that he "touched" a friend in Lincoln for $5 Tuesday noon.

Oswald's car was out of gas when found Tuesday evening by state and county officers who responded to the highway robbery alarm sent in by Oswald from the farm home of James Lococo. The car was about a mile from where Oswald was found. He had been under bond to be in Seward by noon Tuesday, he said.

FOUNDATION PLAN FOR HOTEL HERE

Officer of Firm Building Cornhusker Hotel Says Progress Satisfactory.

E. A. Jennings, vice president of the Gauger-Korsmo Construction company, builder of the Cornhusker hotel at Thirteenth and M streets, arrived in Lincoln Monday afternoon for a stay of a few days. He brought plans for the foundations with him. Drawings of the portion above ground are not yet completed. They will probably be ready within ten days, he said, when some minor changes asked by the operator have been arranged.

A building permit for the foundations probably will be applied for separately, says Mr. Jennings. Work has been retarded a little by the recent rains, but Mr. Jennings is pleased with the general progress made. A portion of the excavation has been pushed down 12 feet, as far as needed, and forms for part of the concrete work may be placed this week. Part of the basement must be dug 16 1-2 feet, however, and not much pouring of concrete is anticipated before next week. Steel for the superstructure has already been shipped and should arrive shortly.

Catches Rat By Tail; Kills It With Foot

A huge rat that had been gnawing window casings in the basement of the courthouse was killed by County Agent Purbaugh this morning when he caught it by the tail as it was escaping through a hole in the wall.

The rat, it is thought, had gnawed the wood in an effort to escape.

Mr. Purbaugh noticed it as it ran across the floor to the hole. He caught it by the tail and threw it to the floor, killing it by stepping on it.

SURPLUS MONEY FOR ASSEMBLY

Epworth League to More Than Break Even For First Time In Some Years.

Name Executive Committee For Next Year—Chicago Judge Is Speaker.

The rain of Tuesday night cut Wednesday morning attendance at the Epworth Assembly considerably, but officers expected at least as large an audience for the afternoon and evening programs of the closing day as came to the grounds Monday.

Nine members of the board of directors were elected at the annual delegated convention of the Nebraska Conference Epworth league Wednesday at 9 a. m., and the other two members were to be chosen at another business meeting following the afternoon program.

The assembly this year will more than break even, for the first time in several years, the financial report read Wednesday morning indicated. It was estimated the surplus would be about $500 or $600.

Committee Makes Report.

At Tuesday afternoon's business session a special committee of nine reported on the assembly's future policy, that it would be continued in its present form, but with greater stress on the religious side, and that it would be financially stabilized each year by an advance season ticket sale.

About 1,200 season tickets have been sold so far for next year's assembly, W. Edgar Gates, secretary, said Wednesday morning. These are in addition to automobile and children's tickets, of which no accurate count has been made. An active campaign will be made in churches of the state sometime before next summer to carry out the policy determined upon Tuesday, he said.

Members elected Wednesday morning to the new board are:

Board of Directors Elected.

E. M. Avery, University Place; C. A. Fulmer, Lincoln, W. Edgar Gates, Lincoln; Rev. F. F. Travis, Lincoln; Rev. W. C. Kelly, Cambridge; Rev. A. J. Croft, University Place; Rev. F. E. Sala, University Place; Rev. J. E. Johnson, Saronville, and A. J. Stenten, Papillion.

Dr. E. G. Cutshall delivered the closing sermon of the gathering at 11 a. m., Wednesday, and conducted the Bible conference at 9.

Dr. Corwin Taylor, recently returned from fifteen years in Korea, was to speak at 2 p. m., and Judge Frank P. Sadler of the Chicago Municipal court on "The City, the Storm Center of the Nation," at 3:30.

The Women's Home Missionary society rally was the official designation of the afternoon program.

The Davies' Opera company presented a program at 2:30, and were to give the full opera, "Olivette" in the evening, at the closing program.

Indians Rights To Hunt and Fish Knotty Problem

Are Indians living on government reservations in Nebraska required to take out fishing and hunting licenses before they can indulge in those sports? Do the state game and fish laws apply within the areas where other branches of civil administration are in the hands of United States officials?

State Agriculture Secretary McLaughlin doesn't know the answers to these inquiries, propounded to him in a letter from Supt. F. T. Mann of the Winnebago reservation, writing from the town of Winnebago. McLaughlin will ask the attorney general's office to help him figure it out.

An Indian would, of course, have to take out a license to fish or hunt anywhere outside of a reservation.

Patient at State Hospital Escapes But Is Returned

An inmate of the state hospital for the insane, escaped from that institution sometime early Wednesday morning and was found wandering through the fields about eleven miles southwest of Lincoln shortly before noon today.

A farmer living in that vicinity noticed the man's peculiar actions and notified the state sheriff's office. Deputy Sheriff Hassan went out to investigate and took the patient into custody. On the way back to Lincoln, officers from the hospital were met and the man was turned over to them.

Dr. B. G. Griffiths said that Cremysell had been put to work in the dairy barns at 3:30 o'clock this morning and had escaped a short time after that.

Arrested On Charge Of Having Narcotics

George Stevenson and Dewey Hughes, two transients who say they five in Kansas City, were arraigned Wednesday morning before U. S. Commissioner Whitmore on charges alleging possession of narcotics. They were arrested at Geneva, Neb., and brought to Lincoln Tuesday afternoon.

Both men admitted they are dope addicts but only one admits having had the morphine in his possession. Commissioner Whitmore continued their hearing until Friday when the government will have witnesses here to identify the one on whom the drugs was found. They are being held at the county jail pending the hearing.

'RED' FACTION BLAMED FOR A SERIOUS CLASH

Three Labor Officials In Hospital, One Miner Dying And Score Injured At Zeigler As Result Of Three Day "Wild Cat" Strike.

ZEIGLER, Ill., Aug. 12.—(I. N. S.)—Three labor officials lie wounded in hospitals of neighboring towns today, one miner is reported dying and at least twenty men were injured, the result of a night of rioting here that came as the culmination to a three day "wild cat" coal mine strike.

The wounded: Lon Fox, president sub district No. 9, United Mine Workers of America; E. C. Cobs, vice president of sub district No. 9; Hissie Hindman, president of the West Frankfort labor assembly; Mike Sarazich, dying, shot through the abdomen.

The twenty or more men injured were treated and released.

Fox and Cobs were beaten and stabbed. Hindman was shot through the groin.

Three arrests had been made today by authorities who report the situation is "well in hand" and that no outside aid will be necessary.

Ellis Harris, Bert and Oscar Farthing, brothers, all miners, were arrested, charged with carrying concealed weapons and inciting a riot.

Strike Not Sanctioned.

According to Zeigler authorities, the riots started after the labor officials had arrived to attend a meeting called by the striking miners and protested the strike, which was called by the local union, without the sanction of the sub district chiefs.

The sub district offices had deposed the Zeigler union heads for the strike call and their appearance at the miners' hall precipitated the general disorders and free-for-all fight.

The doors of the meeting hall were locked and turmoil followed. Lights were shot out, while knives and guns were brought into play in the darkness. According to Benton authorities, disorders have been feared in Zeigler for months where a communist organization admittedly thrives.

The foreign communist element in the mines here, that employ 1,100 men, outnumber the American residents by 25 to 1, Sheriff White of Benton, said.

GOTHAM FIRMS TAKE STEPS TO STOP BURGLARY

Numberous Robberies Force Insurance Rates to High Mark.

Special Guards and Protective Systems Are Being Installed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—While the National Crime commission is arousing public opinion to the end that New York may be made safer for New Yorkers and their possessions, and the Fifth Avenue association is clamoring for 2,000 additional police, there is an economic factor that is working overtime to the same end. This is the mounting rate for burglary insurance.

The immediate result has been to cause many financial houses and merchandising establishments to set up defenses of their own.

For obvious reasons not much is said publicly about this private protection, but a tour through that part of Manhattan, south of Times Square reveals an extraordinary situation and suggests that the business of robbery and burglary in the future may be as hazardous a risk for criminals as it has been for the insurance companies.

The most notable departure has been that on the part of the Furriers' Security alliance, the members of which have been especially hard hit. Two recent robberies each netted the thieves loot of $150,000. Insurance compaines have in some cases cancelled policies on fur stocks.

Squad of Sharpshooters.

The alliance has organized a squad of sharpshooters composed of ex-service men and these supplement the patrol of the wholesale fur district lying generally in the vicinity of the Pensylvania station.

Silk and velvet dealers occupying a half mile along Madison and Fourth avenues, have added to the number of their private watchmen, and in adition, almost without exception, have connected their establishments by electric alarm signals with private agencies who maintain automobile patrols to respond to signals.

Private detective agencies are reaping a harvest by furnishing special guards for jewelry firms in the theater and shopping district.

Police records for July show:

Six murders.

Twenty major robberies aggregating a loss of $600,000.

Forty-odd thefts each under $1,000.

WIDOW OF BRYAN FROWNS ON PLAN

COCOANUT GROVE, Fla., Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.) — Mrs. William Jennings Bryan has never heard of Miss Dionessa Bryan Evans and has never lent her approval to Miss Evans' announced plans to establish a national memorial to the Commoner at Clewiston, Fla., the widow of the fundamentalist leader told the Associated Press last night.

Miss Evans, characterized as Mr. Bryan's "god-daughter," was quoted in New York dispatches yesterday as saying that the widow had approved the selection of the site on the southwest shore of Lake Okeechobee for the monument to the former secretary of state.

Mrs. Bryan in her statement said:

"The statement of Miss Dionessa Bryan Evans, that I approve of the selection which she has made for a Bryan memorial, appears in this evening's Associated Press report. I am compelled to say that I do not know the young lady, never heard of her and have never lent my approval to anything which she has suggested.

"Tentative plans were made in Washington by prominent and lifelong friends of Mr. Bryan looking toward a suitable memorial in Washington."

McMullen Meets Officers Of State Troops On Impromptu Visit to Ashland.

Seventeen guns—[illegible] cannon boomed out a salute Governor McMullen commander in chief of the Nebraska national guard when he and a party from Lincoln arrived at the Ashland encampment Tuesday afternoon for a brief visit A bugler blew the officers call which summoned together the commanding personnel to receive the executive

Although next Sunday has been set aside as governor's day at which time Mr McMullen will review the state troops on parade he wanted to see the camp just as it is when the ordinary routine is going on and things have not been all dolled up So the impromptu trip to Ashland was taken Tuesday Those who accompanied the governor were his secretary David Aleeker State Finance Secretary D S Dalbey Walton C Roberts and Allen C Burke of Bancroft speaker of the house last winter

Adjutant General Paul made a speech of welcome to which Governor McMullen responded After receiving line was then formed and all the officers were introduced to the governor by Major M L Addleet as they passed

The visitors inspected the whole camp including tents kitchen mess quarters water supply and the new hospital which has an operating table and all other needed equipment for emergencies with two volunteer nurses in constant attendance

Excellent sanitary conditions were found and due to the sandy soil the camp was dry underfoot notwithstanding a 2 inch rain which had fallen earlier in the day

The gubernatorial party returned to Lincoln in the evening and Governor McMullen later started on his trip to western and northwestern Nebraska to inspect state parks

SHOW DECREASE IN RAIL BUSINESS

Ten-Year Figures Indicate Automobiles Gain In Freight Passenger Traffic.

To what extent the increased use of automobile and trucks has diverted freight and passenger traffic from the railroads is shown by a compilation made in the state railway commission's accounting department giving the amount of business annually handled at all stations on the Burlington line from Emerald to Aurora inclusive during the past eleven years

Beginning with 1914 the record shows a progressive increase in less than carload freight tonnage until 1918 when the volume began to shrink and from that time on it has been steadily dwindling except for a slight gain in 1920 On the passenger side the revenue from tickets sales at the points referred to decreased slightly in 1920 and again in 1921 but otherwise there was a steady gain up to 1920 when it began to fall off The downward trend of passenger business as of freight has been continuous since 1920

Shipments of freight from Aurora Emerald and all intermediate places in 1924 in less than carload lots aggregated only 30 per cent of the [illegible] figures Of incoming less than carloads freight there was in 1924 only 8 per cent of the amount in 1914 Ticket sales to passengers in the same time fell off 45 per cent On each class the 1920 returns were below those realized in 1914 from 0 to 60 per cent

This computation does not include anything either incoming or outgoing The only record on less than carload freight and on passenger revenue is as follows

Year	Total tons received	Total sales
1914	1 [illegible]	$ 1 [illegible]
1915	1 [illegible]	1 [illegible]

RAIN TWO THIRDS NORMAL IN JULY

Weather Bureau Report Summarizes Weather Conditions For Month.

Temperatures and sunshine were above normal rainfall was decidedly deficient and humidity and wind velocity were low on an average in July says a summary of weather conditions in the state for the month of July prepared by Thomas A Blair meteorologist at the government weather bureau

The total precipitation averaged about two thirds of the normal the report continues The greatest deficiency was over the eastern half of the state especially the northeastern quarter and the least deficiency in western and northwestern sections where a number of stations received amounts well above normal

Less than two inches fell over large areas in northeastern southern and western parts of the state a few scattered localities receiving less than one inch Amounts exceeding two inches were recorded from the southeastern corner diagonally across the state and several stations in southeastern and northwestern counties received more than four inches

Over the eastern half of the state rains were fairly well distributed throughout the month with rain periods centering on the 3d 8th 14th 20th 25th and 29th Over the western half there were showers during the first week and the last two weeks being heaviest and most nearly general during the last week

High temperatures prevailed during the first half of the month throughout the state but the last half was cool especially the last week The resulting monthly averages ranged from nearly 2 degrees above normal in the southwestern section to just normal in northwestern The 1st 2d 8th 13th and 19th were unusually warm days and maximum above 100 degrees at nearly all stations on one or more of these days

Minima ranged from 40 to 51 degrees in eastern and southern counties The 31st was quite generally the coldest day of the month and light frost occurred in northern Sioux City county on that date

Harvest of small grains was completed and threshing begun during the first three weeks of July under excellent weather conditions Yields were uneven but mostly poor to fair Corn started the month in excellent condition and made rapid progress at first but the continued high temperatures and deficient rainfall caused a slowing of growth and toward the end of the month there was considerable deterioration and serious damage due to lack of moisture even though temperatures were well below normal during the last decade Potatoes alfalfa other hay crops and pastures also suffered from the drought

Few Violations Of Paroles By U. S. Prisoners

WASHINGTON A [illegible] (A P)—The regular autumn meeting of the parole boards at federal prisons will be held at Atlanta August 5 at Leavenworth about September 10 and at the McNeil Island penitentiary about September 15 In making this announcement Superintendent White of federal prisons said 474 federal prisoners had been granted paroles since April 1 A survey he said showed that slightly less than 4 per cent had violated their paroles

Publishers and Printers Want Lasting Peace

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—With the hope of establishing permanent peace between the American Newspaper Publishers' association and the International Typographical union, conferences between S. E. Thompson, president of the publishers' organization, and James M. Lynch, chief executive of the union, will be resumed immediately following the seventieth annual convention of the union, now in session here, it was announced late yesterday by Mr. Lynch.

One hundred and fifty local printers' unions of the United States and Canada have voluntarily accepted the international's arbitration method of adjusting differences with employers that are incapable of solution by conciliation, the union executive stated.

A working agreement, which existed between the publishers' association and the union, expired several months ago.

GOVERNOR AT GUARD CAMP

McMullen Meets Officers Of State Troops On Impromptu Visit to Ashland.

Seventeen guns—not rifles, but cannon—boomed out a salute to Governor McMullen, commander-in-chief of the Nebraska national guard, when he and a party from Lincoln arrived at the Ashland encampment Tuesday afternoon for a brief visit. A bugler blew the officers' call, which summoned together the commanding personnel to receive the executive.

Although next Sunday has been set aside as "governor's day," at which time Mr. McMullen will review the state troops on parade, he wanted to see the camp just as it is when the ordinary routine is going on and things have not been "all dolled up." So the impromptu trip to Ashland was taken Tuesday. Those who accompanied the governor were his secretary, David Meeker, State Finance Secretary D. S. Dalbey, Walton G. Roberts, and Allen G. Burke of Bancroft, speaker of the house last winter.

Adjutant General Paul made a speech of welcome, to which Governor McMullen responded. A receiving line was then formed and all the officers were introduced to the governor by Major M. L. Poteet, as they passed.

The visitors inspected the whole camp, including tents, kitchens, mess quarters, water supply, and the new hospital which has an operating table and all other needed equipment for emergencies, with two volunteer nurses in constant attendance.

Excellent sanitary conditions were found and, due to the sandy soil, the camp was dry underfoot, notwithstanding a 2-inch rain which had fallen earlier in the day.

The gubernatorial party returned to Lincoln in the evening, and Governor McMullen later started on his trip to western and northwestern Nebraska to inspect state parks.

About People

A. A. Baer, 1029 Prospect street, and his two daughters, Thora and Mildred, returned Tuesday from a visit to Mr. Baer's mother at Salt Lake City. The mother, though ninety years old, is in good health. Two brothers and their families at Salt Lake were also visited.

John L. Mattox left Tuesday evening on a business trip to Colorado and Wyoming points. He expects to return to Lincoln in about a week.

C. G. Hrubesky, formerly connected with the state highway administration of Nebraska, who has been employed in engineering work at Denved for some time past, was here Wednesday enroute to Orlando, Fla., where he may locate permanently. He will be associated there at least temporarily, with Earl White in drainage, railroad and other engineering projects. Both men are graduates of the University of Nebraska.

Births

The following certificates of birth were filed in the office of the city board of health Wednsday, August 12:

SHOW DECREASE IN RAIL BUSINESS

Ten-Year Figures Indicate Automobiles Gain In Freight Passenger Traffic.

To what extent the increased use of automobile and trucks has diverted freight and passenger traffic from the railroads is shown by a compilation made in the state railway commission's accounting department, giving the amount of business annually handled at all stations on the Burlington line from Emerald to Aurora, inclusive, during the past eleven years.

Beginning with 1914, the record shows a progressive increase in less than carload freigh ttonnage until 1918, when the volume began to shrink, and from that time on it has been steadily dwindling, except for a slight gain in 1920. On the passenger side, the revenue from tickets sales at the points referred to decreased slightly in 1915 and again in 1917, but otherwise there was a steady gain up to 1920, when it began to fall off. The downward ternd of passenger business, as of freight, has been continuous since 1920.

Shipments of freight from Aurora Emerald and all intermediate places in 1924 in less than carload lots aggregated only 30 per cent of the 1920 figures. Of incoming less-than-carloads freight there was in 1924 only 58 per cent of the amount in 1920. Ticket sales to passengers in the same time fell off 48 per cent. On each class, the 1920 returns were below those realized in 1914 from 30 to 65 per cent.

This computation does not include carload freight, either incoming or outgoing. The 5-year record on less than carload freight and on passenger revenue is as follows:

Year	Tons Fght. forwarded	Tons Fght. received	Ticket sales
1920	3,715	10,858	$216,511
1921	2,546½	8,656½	167,210
1922	1,962½	8,462	135,981
1923	1,568½	7,230½	126,187
1924	1,412½	6,359	111,073

WASHINGTON—Closing of the anti-trust offices of the department of justice at Seattle, Wash., and Portland, Ore., with the resignations of Special Assistants Hughes, Hudson and DeBruler, was announced Tuesday by Attorney General Sargent. RAIN TWO THIRDS NORMAL IN JULY

Weather Bureau Report Summarizes Weather Conditions For Month.

Temperatures and sunshine were above normal, rainfall was decidedly deficient, and humidity and wind velocity were low on an average in July, says a summary of weather conditions in the state for the month of July, prepared by Thomas A. Blair, meteorlogist at the government weather bureau.

"The total precipitation averaged about two-thirds of the normal," the report continues. The greatest deficiency was over the eastern half of the state, especially the northeastern quarter, and the least deficiency in western and northwestern sections, where a number of stations received amounts well above normal.

"Less than two inches fell over large areas in northeastern, southern and western parts of the state, a few scattered localities receiving less than one inch. Amounts exceeding two inches were recorded from the southeastern corner diagonally acros the state, and several stations in southeastern and northwestern counties received more than four inches.

"Over the eastern half of the state rains were fairly well distributed throughout the month with rain periods centering on the 3d, 8th, 14th, 20th, 25th and 29th. Over the western half there were showers during the first week and the last two weeks, being heaviest and most nearly general during the last week.

"High temperatures prevailed during the first half of the month throughout the state, but the last half was cool especially the last week. The resulting monthly averages ranged from nearly 2 degrees above normal in the southwestern section to just normal in northwestern. The 1st, 2d, 8th, 13th and 15th were unusually warm days, and maximum above 100 degrees at nearly all stations on one or more of these days.

"Minima ranged from 40 to 54 degrees in eastern and southern counties. The 31st was quite generally the coldest day of the month and light frost occurred in northern Sioux City county on that date.

"Harvest of small grains was completed and threshing begun during the first three weeks of July under excellent weather conditions. Yields were uneven but mostly poor to fair. Corn started the month in excellent condition and made rapid progress at first, but the continued high temperatures and deficient rainfall caused a slowing of growth, and toward the end of the month there was considerable deterioration and serious damage due to lack of moisture, even though temperatures were well below normal during the last decade. Potatoes alfalfa, other hay crops and pastures, also suffered from the drought."

Few Violations Of Paroles By U. S. Prisoners

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. — (A. P.)—The regular autumn meeting of the parole boards at federal prisons will be held at Atlanta, August 28, at Leavenworth about September 10 and at the McNeil Island penitentiary about September 26. In making this announcement, Superintendent White of federal prisons said 474 federal prisoners had been granted paroles since April 7. A survey, he said, showed that slightly less than 4 per cent had violated their paroles.

Unusually attractive in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Josephine Hyatt and William S. Burrows which took place Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. S. Hyatt, 2125 South street. Only the immediate relatives attended. The marriage lines were read by Dr. John Andrew Holmes before an improvised altar banked with a profusion of garden flowers in various shades. The bride wore a frock of beige georgette made with cream lace, and carried a sheaf bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrows left Tuesday evening for a honeymoon trip to the Black Hills after which they will make their home in Albion, where Mr. Burrows is postmaster.

Guy Hyatt, a brother of the bride, from Schenectady, N. Y., was an out of town guest.

Miss Sylvia Holmstrom entertained the members of her Sunday School class at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Eva Anderson, Tuesday evening at her home in Havelock. A color motif of purple and white was used throughout the house for decorations and was carried out in the low bowls of purple garden flowers. The same colors were used in the refreshments which consisted of grape ice and white cakes. The evening was spent with various games, and making a book of the life of the bride-to-be. Each guest made a page, and the cover, which had previously been made by the hostess, bore the title, "The Story of the Life of Adam ((Allen) and Eve (Eva)", modern edition. At the time of the presentation of gifts, little Vivian Barnhart came in drawing a wagon in which a tree had been placed. The tree was laden with packages and bore a placard which read: "Of the Fruits of this tree you may freely partake." There were fourteen guests present.

PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESY FOR MISS LAMB.

Miss Gladys Jacobsen will pay a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Margaret Lamb this evening at her home, 735 South Twenty-eighth street, when she will entertain a number of guests at a kitchen shower for the bride-to-be. The guest will number fifteen. A color note of pink and white will be introduced with garden flowers. Small brooms will be given to the guests as favors. The evening will be spent with games and a late hour refreshments will be served. The gifts will be labeled to represent the various containers in the kitchen cabinet, and attached to each one will be a verse explaining its use.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MISS FELLOWS.

Miss Doris Lanning, 1321 North Twenty-seventh street entertained at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at her home, honoring Miss Katherine Fellows whose marriage to Willard Townsend will take place Saturday evening. There were twenty-four guests present. Rainbow colors were used in the decorations, and at the end of an improvised rainbow was a pot of gold containing the gifts for the bride-to-be. The time was spent with games and music, and a miniature bridal procession of dolls were dressed by the guests. Small bags of rice were given to the guests who showered the bride.

LUCY BRISACK MARRIED TUESDAY EVENING.

A very simple wedding took place Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. T. S. Brisack, 1830 J street, when her daughter, Lucy May, became the bride of Willard M. Harris of Lander, Wyo. The service was read by Rev. John Rollings of the Caldwell Memorial church in the presence of members of the families and a few close friends. There were no attendants and there was no music. The bride wore a straight-line frock of satin crepe in a gold shade, and did not carry flowers. Ices and cakes were served to the guests immediately following the ceremony. The young couple left Wednesday morning for Lander, Wyo., where they will make their home.

PRETTY WEDDING FOR MISS MATY BIMSON.

The marriage of Miss Maty Bimson to Carroll Prouty of South Essex, Mass., was solemnized Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. H. Hunter and Rev. Hunter in Grand Island. Only relatives and a few very close friends were present. Tall baskets of gladioli in shades of pink were shown in striking relief against a background of summer greenery, forming an altar for the reading of the marriage lines. Rev. Hunter officiated. The bridal party entered the living room to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding music. Miss Pearl Worthington of Lincoln, the honor maid came first. Miss Worthington wore a frock of poudre blue georgette, with a silveh head band, and silver slippers. Following Miss Worthington came little Jean Jack in a fluffy dress of white georgette made over flesh silk, carrying the ring in a rose. The bridal gown was of white georgette banded in rich lace. The gown was fashioned with a long waistline and a full skirt with a deep band of lace at the hem line. An arm bouquet of white rosebuds with a shower of swansonia and lilies of the valley, was the bridal bouquet. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Prouty left for Massachusetts, where Mr. Prouty is attending a theological school. Mrs. Prouty attended the University of Nebraska and has been teaching in the Lincoln schools. She will complete her senior year's work in Boston. The bride's going away costume was a roseda green ensemble, with small hat to match.

MISS MARY CREEKPAUM MARRIED WEDNESDAY.

A pretty morning church wedding took place at the East Lincoln Christian church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, when Miss Mary Creekpaum, the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Creekpaum, became the bride of Herbert Gray. Rev. Jack Leonard read the marriage lines before a background of ferns and gladioli. Preceding the ceremony Miss Louisa Creekpaum, sister of the bride, at the piano and Miss Mary Ellen Edgerton of Aurora on the violin played "Liebestraume," "I Love You Truly," and the Lohengrin wedding march. "To A Wild Rose," was played softly during the ceremony and the Mendelssohn wedding march as the recessional. The bride was gowned in pencil blue crepe satin with the hat to match and carried a corsage of roses and sweet peas. A wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, 700 North Twenty-fourth street. Covers were laid for thirty at the breakfast table with appointments carried out in white garden flowers. The young couple left for the Minnesota lakes for two weeks after which they will be at home in Lincoln.

EPWORTH CHOIR PARTY FOR BRIDES-TO-BE.

Honoring Miss Hazel White and Benjamin Christner whose marriage is to take place soon, the members of the Epworth choir of the Epworth church entertained at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at the church. Pink and white were used in the decorations, and also in the refreshments which were served late in the evening. The evening was spent with games, and short talks were given by Mrs. George Sturdevant, who addressed the young couple on behalf of the choir; Gird Logsdon, who talked on behalf of the Epworth league. Miss Marie Quick supervised the games and music during the evening. Little June Meck on a tricycle drawing a wagon loaded with gifts, and driven by Miss Frances Johnston, both little girls dressed as cupids, presented the gifts to Miss White and Mr. Christner.

ENTERTAINS FOR TWO GUESTS FROM AWAY.

Miss Hazel Brittell entertained informally Monday evening for I. I. Miles of Chicago, and Bud Adkins of New York City, who are guests at the home of Mr. Miles parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Miles of University Place. The fore part of the evening was spent with dancing at the park, after which refreshments were served at the home of Miss Brittell, 2419 Bradfield drive.

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR MISS SADYE ASBYLL.

Mrs. Max Mozer, 2515 South Twelfth street will entertain a group of guests at a kitchen shower this evening, honoring Miss Sadye Asbyll. There will be seven tables of bridge players, and late in the evening luncheon will be served.

Personals.

Infantile Paralysis Records Shattered On Western Coast

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Records of nearly fifteen years have been broken by the number of infantile paralysis cases reported throughout California since January 1, according to figures of the state board of health.

In the first seven months of this year 378 cases were reported, the highest number since 1912. A total of 202 cases were reported in July.

The epidemic continues in spite of the vigil of the health authorities. The majority of the cases are in the southern part of the state.

GIRLS TO HOLD A STYLE SHOW

Clothing Club Members to Enter Competition At State Fair This Year.

Clothing club girls will stage their first annual style show at the state fair this year, according to plans they have made in their work under the Agricultural Extension service this year. They will wear clothes they have made and selected themselves and compete with each other for cash prizes offered by the fair.

The show is scheduled for 4 o'clock Wednesday of fair week at the home economics demonstration platform in the Agricultural Extension building. The ten winners will show their costumes before the grand stand when the club folks parade there Wednesday evening

One girl from each county may enter this competition. She must have completed the clothing club project and have made her dress which she wears. She must select her hose, shoes, hat if worn, and any accessories herself.

Score cards which have been sent to all the clothing club girls will be used in judging and making the awards. Twenty-five per cent is allowed for the general effect of the costume including the carriage of the body and the relation of one part of the costume to the others. Twenty-five per cent is allowed for the appropriateness of the costume to the occasion, and another 25 percent is allowed for the appropriateness to the wearer. Workmanship will count 20 per cent and the expenditure of money 5 per cent. Each competitor must submit a description of the dress and a statement of its cost with her entry.

Girls from 10 to 18 years of age learn to sew and make their own clothes in this project. They can take three progressive years of this type of club work and many of them become expert dressmakers by doing their own practical work.

MISS HYATT MARRIED TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Unusually attractive in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Josephine Hyatt and William S. Burrows which took place Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. S. Hyatt, 2125 South street. Only the immediate relatives attended. The marriage lines were read by Dr. John Andrew Holmes before an improvised altar banked with a profusion of garden flowers in various shades. The bride wore a frock of beige georgette made with cream lace, and carried a sheaf bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrows left Tuesday evening for a honeymoon trip to the Black Hills after which they will make their home in Albion, where Mr. Burrows is postmaster.

Guy Hyatt, a brother of the bride, from Schenectady, N. Y., was an out of town guest.

HAS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS AS GUEST.

Miss Sylvia Holmstrom entertained the members of her Sunday School class at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Eva Anderson, Tuesday evening at her home in Havelock. A color motif of purple and white was used throughout the house for decorations and was carried out in the low bowls of purple garden flowers. The same colors were used in the refreshments which consisted of grape ice and white cakes. The evening was spent with various games, and making a book of the life of the bride-to-be. Each guest made a page, and the cover, which had previously been made by the hostess, bore the title, "The Story of the Life of Adam ((Allen) and Eve (Eva)", modern edition. At the time of the presentation of gifts, little Vivian Barnhart came in drawing a wagon in which a tree had been placed. The tree was laden with packages and bore a placard which read: "Of the Fruits of this tree you may freely partake." There were fourteen guests present.

PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESY FOR MISS LAMB.

Miss Gladys Jacobsen will pay a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Margaret Lamb this evening at her home, 735 South Twenty-eighth street, when she will entertain a number of guests at a kitchen shower for the bride-to-be. The guest will number fifteen. A color note of pink and white will be introduced with garden flowers. Small brooms will be given to the guests as favors. The evening will be spent with games and a late hour refreshments will be served. The gifts will be labeled to represent the various containers in the kitchen cabinet, and attached to each one will be a verse explaining its use.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MISS FELLOWS.

Miss Doris Lanning, 1321 North Twenty-seventh street entertained at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at her home, honoring Miss Katherine Fellows whose marriage to Willard Townsend will take place Saturday evening. There were twenty-four guests present. Rainbow colors were used in the decorations, and at the end of an improvised rainbow was a pot of gold containing the gifts for the bride-to-be. The time was spent with games and music, and a miniature bridal procession of dolls were dressed by the guests. Small bags of rice were given to the guests who showered the bride.

LUCY BRISACK MARRIED TUESDAY EVENING.

A very simple wedding took place Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. T. S. Brisack, 1830 J street, when her daughter, Lucy May, became the bride of Willard M. Harris of Lander, Wyo. The service was read by Rev. John Rollings of the Caldwell Memorial church in the presence of members of the families and a few close friends. There were no attendants and there was no music. The bride wore a straight-line frock of satin crepe in a gold shade, and did not carry flowers. Ices and cakes were served to the guests immediately following the ceremony. GUN TOTING.

The Literary Digest reflects nationwide opinion in a discussion of the crime problem

One paragraph of the resume garnered from the press of the country is of special significance It directs attention to a situation which has existed in America for many years. When President Schober of the Vienna police was visiting in this country a few months ago a representative of the Boston Post interrogated him for his views of the surprising crime wave He closed his remarks with the following

Americans carry more revolvers than all the people of Europe Asia and Africa combined I suspect that this one fact alone causes more violent crime than all of my other theories put together

There is an amazing lack of accurate information with respect to crime There has been no authentic compilation of figures for the nation or for the various states. It has been said on many occasions that 50 per cent of all the murders committed in America involved the use of firearms In Nebraska seven out of nine killings in recent months were accomplished through the medium of a gun

The first intelligent step towards curbing crime in this country calls for disarmament. Until revolvers and rifles and shotguns are taken from those who have no business with them there will be no appreciable decrease in the most abhorrent the most revolting phase of crime. So long as it is possible for immature boys and irresponsible young men to secure guns with little difficulty these killings will continue. Go into most of the larger cities of the United States and it is not difficult to understand why human life is being held so cheaply in this country There is the constant invitation to arm Firearms can be purchased without restraint. They can be bought so cheaply that nearly anyone who desires a gun can get one It is a vastly different situation from that which prevails in most of the countries in Europe and undoubtedly explains in a larger measure the frightful number of murders with which this nation is charged

Nebraska has a law prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons. It is not enforced through any failure of the officers but because of a lack of sentiment back of it Most of us think it is our own business if we want a gun Most of us think that it is our right and our privilege if we desire to have a gun in our homes There are a surprising number who feel that they have a right to carry a weapon for at least a portion of the day or the year

* * *

That is one side of the business of gun toting The other is equally serious and demoralizing

A young man was shot and killed in Omaha last Saturday night by a member of the volunteer police force of that city The victim was stealing some gasoline for his car which had stalled some distance from the scene of the shooting Two members of the volunteer police squad coming upon him unexpectedly called upon him to halt when he started to flee When the command was ignored the volunteer policeman opened fire

A lifetime of regret will not wipe out the memory of that impulsive act on the part of the officer In the performance of their tasks the law enforcement officers of America are coming to show the same reckless disregard of the sacredness of human life that is revealed in the more wanton acts of the desperate criminals

A few weeks ago an officer in western Nebraska shot a young man who was suspected of maintaining a still If the officer's suspicions were correct the youth was a lawbreaker But the most severe punishment which the law would have meted out to that young man providing he was convicted of the offense, would have been a fine of from $100 to $200 or a term in jail or both Unless he was an old offender he would not even been subject to a penitentiary term What possible justification can an officer have for shooting at a fleeing youth under circumstances such as these?

The victim in Omaha Saturday night might have stolen 50 or 60 cents worth of gasoline if he had not been interrupted It would have been a misdemeanor punishable by fine or jail sentence He could not have been sent to the penitentiary The first act of the volunteer when his command to halt failed to achieve results was to send a leaden stream after his victim

If life is to be made more secure in America the law itself must have a greater regard for life It cannot indiscriminately shoot and kill It must make its actions fit the exigencies of each case The law does not recognize the right of an officer to kill a man unless the former's life has been placed in jeopardy Certainly the shooting of those accused of minor offenses cannot be condoned The officer who totes a gun must remember that he is given that right for the protection of his life The use of it on each and every occasion is unwarranted and unlawful

HERESY IN EGYPT

Mohammedan leaders in Egypt are having a ruction among themselves the echoes of which sound strangely familiar here though the personages are unknown It seems that one Sheik Aly Abdel Razek shocked some of the orthodox brethren by attacking polygamy and denying that Allah ever ordained that woman should be held in subjection to man He went further and declared the Koran was not to be taken literally in all things and especially not as the basis of laws made by the state but only as a guide to personal conduct

Promulgation of these doctrines had the effect of stirring up the Mohammedan fundamentalists to fiery denunciation They accused Sheik Aly of trying to undermine religion and destroy the people's faith in their great prophet. They tried to stop the spread of infidelity and agnosticism by demanding that the government stop the sale of his book and prosecute the author Failing in this they convened a council of the faithful and cited the offending sheik to appear before it and answer the charge of heresy

The case has precipitated a violent controversy in Cairo and throughout Egypt Aly Abdel Razek as it appears has a considerable following of liberal and progressive Mohammedans who while clinging to the main tenets of their religion do not look upon every paragraph and word in the Koran as literally true and inspired Over 100 prominent writers and public men have signed a memorial asking that all proceedings against Aly be dismissed and that the constitutional right of free speech and freedom of opinion be recognized

Of course the adherents of fundamentalism are doing all they can to arouse popular prejudice and passion against the foes of religion In its general aspect the fuss is much like our own recent affair at Dayton Tenn In fact the Scopes trial is being discussed in the Egyptian press as a parallel case

Oh wad some power the giftie gie us to see ourselves as ithers see us sang Burns the poet We Americans can see the image of our own littleness and intolerance as manifested by the Tennessee anti evolution law and the Scopes trial reflected in the conduct of the orthodox Mohammedans to suppress Sheik Aly and his book In both instances the purpose is to stifle thought and protect certain dogmatic beliefs by forbidding anyone to teach what might appear more logical and reasonable to an unbiased mind

A few centuries ago the religious standpatters were burning heretics at the stake putting them on the rack or imprisoning them in dungeons Galileo was brought before an ecclesiastical court and forced to renounce his teaching that the earth revolved around the sun and turned on its axis In Salem Mass poor old women were solemnly prosecuted and convicted as witches and put to death on that account All these things were done for the love of God The witch-hunters justified their crusade by pointing to a paragraph in Exodus which says Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live They thought they were carrying out a direct command of Jehovah

Perhaps the religious quarrel they are now having over in Egypt will clear the atmosphere for us

THE NORTH GOES SOUTH

The first six months of 1925 witnessed the greatest amount of building activity in the southern states that that section has ever known Reports from 130 cities of the sixteen states show an aggregate expenditure for the period of $386 383 783 This is $90 000 000 in excess of the record for the same period last year a gain of 30 per cent

Seven of the sixteen southern states suffered losses but these were very light except in West Virginia and Southern Carolina where the contrast was more pronounced due mainly to the fact that activity in these states was unusually great in 1924 The building program in both of the states compared favorably with the years prior to the one mentioned

As might readily be surmised the most pronounced gains were in Florida which was followed by Missouri Kentucky and Alabama All over the state of Florida building was carried on at a rate never before approached the record for Miami and Miami Beach combined being $27 500 000 for the half year or more than four and a half million dollars a month St Petersburg and Tampa each put more than a million dollars a month into buildings In the other states the gains were made mostly in the larger cities St Louis Kansas City Louisville and Birmingham being the leaders

Texas cities showed their usual growth and development particularly Wichita Falls Houston Ft Worth and Dallas and the same was true of most of the other southern cities It is stated that most of the building in that section was of great structures of the most modern type constructed for the housing of commercial industrial and public institutions while an unusually large number of high class hotels and residences have been built

These figures indicate quite clearly that the north is going south and it is going for two reasons Northern capital energy and brains are going into the industrial sections and developing them to the very great advantage of all concerned It is also northern capital that is financing the tremendous building program that has been in progress and still continues in Florida An increasing number of people in these United States find themselves able to vacation for a considerable portion of the time or to retire from business and live in comfort and ease amidst pleasing surroundings These they find in Florida and there they remain and invest in homes

A SERUM FOR SNAKE BITES

Maynard Ditmars the curator of the Bronx zoo in New York City sailed for South America a few days ago on a strange mission His luggage contained enough snake venom to poison an army When he returns he expects to have completed arrangements for the manufacture of serum which will afford relief from rattlesnake bites

Contrary to general belief there is no place in this country where serum of this character can be obtained The companies which manufacture anti toxin for use on animals will not bother with the cultivation of a serum against rattlesnake bites Practically the only country in the world which does manufacture it is Brazil but while the serum made there is alright for Brazilian rattlers it is rather ineffective against the American variety The venom which he is taking with him will be left with the Brazilian experts to work out a proper culture against the American rattler

Contrary to popular opinion the rattler still remains a menace to life in this country A careful survey of the entire country showed that 100 people died of snake bites last year In most instances Mr Ditmars said, death could have been avoided if the proper serum had been obtainable

The wild unfrequented places are not necessarily a habitat of the rattler and other poisonous varieties of snakes, it has been demonstrated In Nebraska the sandhills have laways been noted for the large number of rattlers to be found there For years the ranchmen have conducted a fight against them largely as a means of averting heavy property damage in the loss of cattle rather than to avoid the loss of human life The rattler is not so common in the sandhills as he was a few years ago The destruction of prairie dog communities aided in his extermination But he is still there and every now and then he reappears in large numbers In a days concerted campaign on the edge of a small town in the sandhills a year ago twenty three rattlers were put to death

The eastern counties of the state are not entirely free from rattlesnakes Every now and then reports come in from towns in this section of someone bitten by a rattler

The significance of Mr Ditmars trip to South America is that it is the first real attempt made to insure a serum supply against emergency It is strange that no one has attempted it before

More Truth Than Poetry

THE STAY AT HOME

You have not seen the cherry trees
In bright full blossom in Japan
Your small world lies between the seas
Where crowding people work and plan
You have not stood in Delhi when
Viceregal splendor was displayed
Your life is cramped you toil where men
Are crushed beneath the wheels of trade

You have not sat beside the Nile
And dreamed of cities that were there
When the world was young and while
The daughters of the kings were fair
You have not ventured to behold
That island in the eastern sea
Where young Ulysses may have strolled
At twilight with Penelope

You never have beheld the bay
In which proud Naples bathes her feet
Nor stood beside the Appian Way
When April's fragrances were sweet
You have not stood where Caesar fell
Nor trod the soil that Brutus trod
Assailed by daily needs you dwell
Where commerce is the people's god

And he was right I never had
Seen any of the things he named
But frequently I have been glad
Work doesn't make me feel ashamed
I've heard the shouts of children who
Were filled with joy and free from fear
And one to whom my heart is true
Knows why I like to linger here

Daily Health Talks

This rather widely distributed affliction occurs usually as a localized disease That is it is confined to one small area and the nerves therein

Literally neuritis is the inflammation of a nerve or nerves The principal causes of neuritis of the localized type are Cold wounds which cause pressure on or tearing off the nerves and in others from neighboring disease processes

The rarer form is known as multiple neuritis The causes are The poisons from infectious diseases such as smallpox typhoid fever and diphtheria Chemical poisoning with which alcohol is classed is often responsible and it occurs sometimes in wasting diseases such as cancer and tuberculosis

The pain from localized neuritis is usually of a sharp stabbing nature and is felt around the inflamed nerve The skin may be reddened and the use of the muscles which the afflicted nerve supplies is restored and painful Very often this form of neuritis is confused by the layman with the neuralgia

The more serious multiple neuritis occurs from colds and over exertion alcoholism infectious diseases and metallic poisoning Its appearance varies from very gradually in alcoholic causes to very suddenly in those resulting from exposure and exertion The symtoms are also variable and may be cleared up in a few days or may even cause death

Only a physician is competent to diagnose neuritis and its nature is so complex that I will not attempt to give the symptoms of the more serious type

The most important item in the treatment of neuritis is rest in bed When possible and when the gravity of the disease requires it the patient with neuritis should go to a warm dry climate Ridgid diet and free elimination of the bowels are also necessary Massage is useful to combat the degeneration of the muscles and to stimulate the diseased nerves

Internal remedies should be taken only under express direction of one's physician

Remember that neuritis is a distinct disease from neuralgia and neurasthenia These latter two will be duscussed in other articles All are nerve disorders but their character and incidence are dissimilar

RELIEVED BY KARNAK AFTER WASTING $3000

'I Wouldn't Have Believed Beforehand Karnak Could Do What It Has Done For My Wife," Declares Sioux City Man.

If anybody had told me before hand that five bottles of this new medicine Karnak was going to do my wife all the good that it had why I just wouldn't have believed it for I had already spent over $3 000 on different medicines and treatments without being able to find anything that would reach her case I tell you Karnak beats anything I ever heard of

This enthusiastic statement was made the other day by M A Provancha Box 130 Military Road Route 3 Sioux City Ia in telling of the remarkable results that his wife is receiving from its use

I tell you my wife sure saw some suffering before she finally got hold of Karnak continued Mr Provancha Her case was one of fifteen years standing and for the past years she had just gotten where she suffered both day and night She could hardly eat enough to keep body and soul together and just had to force down every mouthful She said food seemed to form a lump in the pit of her stomach and at times she would simply double up with pain

Gas would always form on her stomach heartburn and biliousness would follow and it would make her so miserable that often she just refused to eat a bite Her nerves became so upset she couldn't rest at night and in spite of all the money we paid out she could get no relief

And just think of it we have only paid out $5 for the Karnak she has taken and now she can eat anything on the table It seems almost past belief but it's every word the gospel truth She enjoys her meals now and relishes every mouthful and she looks one hundred per cent better and sleeps like a healthy child every night

'We wouldn't be without Karnak in the house This medicine has brought health and happiness to our home and we tell our friends and neighbors about it and never miss a chance to recommend it Send anyone to us who wants to know more about this great medicine and we can certainly tell them enough

Karnak is sold in Lincoln exclusively by the Harley Drug Co in Havelock by the Baker Drug Store and by the leading druggist in every town —Advertisement

GUN TOTING.

The Literary Digest reflects nationwide opinion in a discussion of the crime problem.

One paragraph of the resume garnered from the press of the country is of special significance. It directs attention to a situation, which has existed in America for many years. When President Schober of the Vienna police was visiting in this country a few months ago, a representative of the Boston Post interrogated him for his views of the surprising crime wave. "Americans carry more revolvers than all the people of Europe, Asia and Africa combined. I suspect that this one fact alone causes more violent crime than all of my other theories put together."

There is an amazing lack of accurate information with respect to crime. There has been no authentic compilation of figures for the nation or for the various states. It has been said on many occasions that 50 per cent of all the murders committed in America involved the use of firearms. In Nebraska seven out of nine killings in recent months were accomplished through the medium of a gun.

Until revolvers and rifles and shotguns are taken from those who have no business with them, there will be no appreciable decrease in the most abhorrent, the most revolting phase of crime. So long as it is possible for immature boys and irresponsible young men to secure guns with little difficulty, these killings will continue. Go into most of the larger cities of the United States and it is not difficult to understand why human life is being held so cheaply in this country. There is the constant invitation to arm. Firearms can be purchased without restraint. They can be bought so cheaply that nearly anyone who desires a gun can get one. It is a vastly different situation from that which prevails in most of the countries in Europe and undoubtedly explains in a larger measure the frightful number of murders with which this nation is charged.

Nebraska has a law prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons. It is not enforced through any failure of the officers but because of a lack of sentiment back of it. Most of us think it is our own business if we want a gun. Most of us think that it is our right and our privilege if we desire to have a gun in our homes. There are a surprising number who feel that they have a right to carry a weapon for at least a portion of the day or the year.

* * *

That is one side of the business of gun toting.

The other is equally serious and demoralizing.

A young man was shot and killed in Omaha last Saturday night by a member of the volunteer police force of that city. The victim was stealing some gasoline for his car which had stalled some distance from the scene of the shooting. Two members of the volunteer police squad, coming upon him unexpectedly, called upon him to halt when he started to flee. When the command was ignored, the volunteer policeman opened fire.

A lifetime of regret will not wipe out the memory of that impulsive act on the part of the officer. In the performance of their tasks, the law enforcement officers of America are coming to show the same reckless disregard of the sacredness of human life that is revealed in the more wanton acts of the desperate criminals.

A few weeks ago an officer in western Nebraska shot a young man who was suspected of maintaining a still. If the officer's suspicions were correct, the youth was a lawbreaker. But the most severe punishment which the law would have meted out to that young man, providing he was convicted of the offense, would have been a fine of from $100 to $200 or a term in jail or both. Unless he was an old offender he would not even been subject to a penitentiary term. What possible justification can an officer have for shooting at a fleeing youth under circumstances such as these?

The victim in Omaha Saturday night might have stolen 50 or 60 cents' worth of gasoline, if he had not been interrupted. It would have been a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or jail sentence. He could not have been sent to the penitentiary. The first act of the volunteer when his command to halt failed to achieve results was to send a leaden stream after his victim.

If life is to be made more secure in America, the law itself must have a greater regard for life. It cannot indiscriminately shoot and kill. It must make its actions fit the exigencies of each case. The law does not recognize the right of an officer to kill a man unless the former's life has been placed in jeopardy. Certainly the shooting of those accused of minor offenses cannot be condoned. The officer who totes a gun must remember that he is given that right for the protection of his life. The use of it on each and every occasion is unwarranted and unlawful.

HERESY IN EGYPT.

Mohammedan leaders in Egypt are having a ruction among themselves, the echoes of which sound strangely familiar here though the personages are unknown. It seems that one Sheik Aly Abdel Razek shocked some of the orthodox brethren by attacking polygamy and denying that Allah ever ordained that woman should be held in subjection to man. He went further and declared the Koran was not to be taken literally in all things, and especially not as the basis of laws made by the state, but only as a guide to personal conduct.

Promulgation of these doctrines had the effect of stirring up the Mohammedan fundamentalists to fierce denunciation. They accused Sheik Aly of trying to undermine religion and destroy the people's faith in their great prophet. They tried to stop the spread of "infidelity" and "agnosticism" by demanding that the government stop the sale of his book and prosecute the author. Failing in this, they convened a council of the faithful and cited the offending sheik to appear before it and answer the charge of heresy.

The case has precipitated a violent controversy in Cairo and throughout Egypt. Aly Abdel Razek, as it appears, has a considerable following of liberal and progressive Mohammedans who, while clinging to the main tenets of their religion, do not look upon every paragraph and word in the Koran as literally true and inspired. Over 100 prominent writers and public men have signed a memorial asking that all proceedings against Aly be dismissed and that the constitutional right of free speech and freedom of opinion be recognized.

Of course, the adherents of fundamentalism are doing all they can to arouse popular prejudice and passion against the "foes of religion." In its general aspect, the fuss is much like our own recent affair at Dayton, Tenn. In fact, the Scopes trial is being discussed in the Egyptian press as a parallel case.

"Oh, wad some power the giftie gie us to see ourselves as ithers see us," sang Burns, the poet. We Americans can see the image of our own littleness and intolerance, as manifested by the Tennessee anti-evolution law and the Scopes trial, reflected in the conduct of the orthodox Mohammedans to suppress Sheik Aly and his book. In both instances, the purpose is to stifle thought and protect certain dogmatic beliefs by forbidding anyone to teach what might appear more logical and reasonable to an unbiased mind.

A few centuries ago the religious standpatters were burning heretics at the stake putting them on the rack, or imprisoning them in dungeons. Galileo was brought before an ecclesiastical court and forced to renounce his teaching that the earth revolved around the sun and turned on its axis. In Salem, Mass., poor old women were solemnly prosecuted and convicted as witches, and put to death on that account. All these things were done for the love of God. The witch-hunters justified their crusade by pointing to a paragraph in Exodus which says: "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live." They thought they were carrying out a direct command of Jehovah.

Perhaps the religious quarrel they are now having over in Egypt will clear the atmosphere for us.

THE NORTH GOES SOUTH.

The first six months of 1925 witnessed the greatest amount of building activity in the southern states that that section has ever known. Reports from 130 cities of the sixteen states show an aggregate expenditure for the period of $386,383,283. This is $90,000,000 in excess of the record for the same period last year, a gain of 30 per cent.

Seven of the sixteen southern states suffered losses, but these were very light, except in West Virginia and Southern Carolina, where the contrast was more pronounced, due mainly to the fact that activity in these states was unusually great in 1924. The building program in both of the states compared favorably with the years prior to the one mentioned.

As might readily be surmised the most pronounced gains were in Florida, which was followed by Missouri, Kentucky and Alabama. All over the state of Florida building was carried on at a rate never before approached, the record for Miami and Miami Beach combined being $27,500,000 for the half year, or more than four and a half million dollars a month. St. Petersburg and Tampa each put more than a million dollars a month into buildings. In the other states the gains were made mostly in the larger cities, St. Louis, Kansas City, Louisville and Birmingham being the leaders.

Texas cities showed their usual growth and development, particularly Wichita Falls, Houston, Ft. Worth and Dallas, and the same was true of most of the other southern ctiies. It is stated that most of the building in that section was of great structures of the most modern type, constructed for the housing of commercial, industrial and public institutions, while an unusually large number of high class hotels and residences have been built.

These figures indicate quite clearly that the north is going south, and it is going for two reasons. Northern capital, energy and brains are going into the industrial sections and developing them, to the very great advantage of all concerned. It is also northern capital that is financing the tremendous building program that has been in progress and still continues in Florida. An increasing number of people in these United States find themselves able to vacation for a considerable portion of the time or to retire from business and live in comfort and ease amidst pleasing surroundings. These they find in Florida and there they remain and invest in homes.

A SERUM FOR SNAKE BITES.

Maynard Ditmars, the curator of the Bronx zoo in New York City, sailed for South America a few days ago on a strange mission. His luggage contained enough snake venom to poison an army. When he returns he expects to have completed arrangements for the manufacture of serum which will afford relief from rattlesnake bites.

Contrary to general belief, there is no place in this country where serum of this character can be obtained. The companies which manufacture antitoxin for use on animals will not bother with the cultivation of a serum against rattlesnake bites. Practically the only country in the world which does manufacture it is Brazil but while the serum made there is alright for Brazilian rattlers, it is rather ineffective against the American variety. The venom which he is taking with him will be left with the Brazilian experts to work out a proper culture against the American rattler.

Contrary to popular opinion the rattler still remains a menace to life in this country. A careful survey of the entire country showed that 100 people died of snake bites last year. In most instances, Mr. Ditmars said, death could have been avoided if the proper serum had been obtainable.

The wild, unfrequented places are not necessarily a habitat of the rattler and other poisonous varieties of snakes, it has been demonstrated. In Nebraska the sandhills have laways been noted for the large number of rattlers to be found there. For years the ranchmen have conducted a fight against them, largely as a means of averting heavy property damage in the loss of cattle rather than to avoid the loss of human life. The rattler is not so common in the sandhills as he was a few years ago. The destruction of prairie dog communities aided in his extermination. But he is still there, and every now and then he reappears in large numbers. In a day's concerted campaign on the edge of a small town in the sandhills a year ago, twenty-three rattlers were put to death.

The eastern counties of the state are not entirely free from rattlesnakes. Every now and then reports come in from towns in this section of someone bitten by a rattler.

The significance of Mr. Ditmars' trip to South America is that it is the first real attempt made to insure a serum supply against emergency. It is strange that no one has attempted it before.

More Truth Than Poetry

THE STAY-AT-HOME.

"You have not seen the cherry trees
In bright, full blossom in Japan;
Your small world lies between the seas,
Where crowding people work and plan;
You have not stood in Delhi when
Viceregal splendor was displayed;
Your life is cramped; you toil where men
Are crushed beneath the wheels of trade.

"You have not sat beside the Nile
And dreamed of cities that were there
When the world was young, and while
The daughters of the kings were fair;
You have not ventured to behold
That island in the eastern sea
Where young Ulysses may have strolled
At twilight with Penelope.

"You never have beheld the bay
In which proud Naples bathes her feet,
Nor stood beside the Appian Way
When April's fragrances were sweet;
You have not stood where Caesar fell,
Nor trod the soil that Brutus trod;
Assailed by daily needs, you dwell
Where Commerce is the people's god."

And he was right; I never had
Seen any of the things he named,
But frequently I have been glad;
Work doesn't make me feel ashamed;
I've heard the shouts of children who
Were filled with joy and free from fear,
And one to whom my heart is true
Knows why I like to linger here.

This rather widely distributed affliction occurs usually as a localized disease. That is, it is confined to one small area and the nerves therein.

Literally, neuritis is the inflammation of a nerve, or nerves. The principal causes of neuritis, of the localized type, are: Cold wounds which cause pressure on, or tearing off, the nerves, and involvment from neighboring disease processes.

The rarer form is known as multiple neuritis. The causes are: The poisons from infectious diseases such as smallpox typhoid fever, and diphtheria. Chemical poisoning, with which alcohol is classed, is often responsible, and it occurs, sometimes, in wasting diseases, such as cancer and tuberculosis.

The pain from localized neuritis is usually of a sharp stabbing nature and is felt around the inflamed nerve. The skin may be reddened, and the use of the muscles, which the afflicted nerve supplies, is restored and painful. Very often, this form of neuritis is confused, by the layman, with the neuralgia.

The more serious multiple neuritis occurs from colds and overexertion, alcoholism, infectious diseases and metallic poisoning. Its appearance varies from very gradually in alcholic causes, to very suddenly, in those resulting from exposure and exertion. The symtoms are also variable and may be cleared up in a few days, or may even cause death.

Only a physician is competent to diagnose neuritis, and its nature is so complex that I will not attempt to give the symptoms of the more serious type.

The most important item in the treatment of neuritis is rest in bed. When possible, and when the gravity of the disease requires it, the patient with neuritis should go to a warm, dry climate. Ridgid diet and free elimination of the bowels are also necessary. Massage is useful to combat the degeneration of the muscles and to stimulate the diseased nerves.

Remember that neuritis is a distinct disease from neuralgia and neurasthenia. These latter two will be duscussed in other articles. All are nerve disorders, but their character and incidence are dissimilar.

Questions and Answers.

Questions on health topics mey be addressed to Dr. Perry in care of this newspaper.

QUESTION—I have been troubled with gas on the stomach, for the last ten or twelve years. Please tell me how I can relieve this condition. I would also like to know the address of Hygeia Magazine. Herman R.

ANSWER—A diagnosis is essential in your case. Any good physician can make the examination, which is necessary, and treat you as the findings indicate. Do not put this off any longer, as delay may be disastrous. The addresses of the publishers of Hygeia is "The American Medical association, 520 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill."

Briefly Told News From The Wires

OKMULGEE, Okla.—Acceptance of an offer of the American Civil Liberties union to help District 21, union miners, in the promised fight to suppress Sheriff John Russell's order against so-called "prayer meetings," was telegraphed to New York last night by C. E. B. Cutler, attorney for the union, in the Henryetta field. Mr. Cutler said he did not know whether any of the lawyers who defended John T. Scopes in the Tennessee evolution case would be sent here by the defense league.

PHILADELPHIA — Miss Peggy Thayer, daughter of the late John Borland Thayer, one of Philadelphia's best known sports and society women, was married yesterday to Harold E. Talbot of Dayton, O. The ceremony took place in the presence of a large assemblage of friends.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—A drouth of nearly one month was broken in southeastern South Dakota by a general rain late Tuesday. Throughout the rain area, which included Miner, Lake, Moody, Minnehaha, Turner, Lincoln and a part of McCook counties, farmers were jubilant, with fears for their corn crop dispelled and their fields showing immediate signs of revival.

PARIS — The French aviator, Captain Arrachart, who is attempting to make an air tour of Europe in three days, arrived in Moscow yesterday afternoon from Constantinople. He flew from Paris to the Turkish city Monday at an average speed of 127.3 miles an hour. The third leg of the flight will be back to Paris today.

SAN FRANCISCO—Chester A. Howard, a former prohibition agent, Tuesday was indicted by the federal grand jury on a charge of attempting to collect a bribe while he was in the government service. It was learned that the indictment was returned after the jury had heard evidence purporting to show that Howard had solicited money from the father of a 17-year-old youth, who was charged with violating the Volstead act, on promises to quash the charge.

DES MOINES—A more complete and adequate check on claims of high production records was advocated by L. D. Howell, New York City poultry judge, in an address before the American Poultry association here yesterday. "I have no quarrel," he asserted, "with the man who contends that he has hens that lay 300 eggs a year, but I have checked up on such claims time after time and find most of tem to be untrue."

PARIS—Lively but not serious clashes with the police of Paris and Versailles marked the bank employes' strike Tuesday, a number of arrests being made. The strike has spread to Cherbourg, Chalon, Poitiers, Nimes, Nevers and Saint Etienne.

WASHINGTON—The department of justice announced Tuesday that an appeal would be taken from the decision of the Federal court of southern California, dismissing the government's suit to cancel a lease on certain naval oil reserve lands held by the Belridge Oil Co.

TORONTO, Ont.—Membership in the Order of the Eastern Star has increased 500,000 the last three years, it was announced Tuesday by Minnie E. Keyes, grand secretary at the triennial assembly.

ST. LOUIS—Unaware that a man sitting next to him in Juvenile court was a police clerk, a man giving the name of Thomas B. Hoyt, yesterday confided that he had stolen $12,000 from the Piggly Wiggly corporation at New Orleans five years ago and fled. Hoyt was arrested and held pending confirmation of his story.

GENEVA—The British minister to Switzerland on behalf of India yesterday signed the opium convention adopted at Geneva last February.

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y. — James Rodgers left Tuesday for Harrisburg, Pa., to claim from patter's field the body of his brother, John, who years ago, it was declared, saved the former President Taft from death. John Rodgers was drowned Saturday and his body buried in the alms house cemetery. His heroic feat that saved Mr. Taft was performed when the latter was governor general of the philippines. Rodgers, it was declared, shot and killed a native who was about to fire on Mr. Taft.

NEW YORK—Dr. David C. Bull, who travelled by airplane Monday to Grand Anse, Quebec, to attend Alexander Stillman, 14-year-old son of James A. Stillman, New York banker, was on his way back to New York last night by airplane. Broken bone was the only injury the Stillman boy had suffered. After setting the fractured bone, Dr. Bull left orders for the patient to be taken to Grand Mere for further treatment today.

The Worst Story I Have Heard Today
By Will Rogers

Away out at Monterey, California, at a kind of a town called Carmel-By-The-Sea, there lives a troop of writers, and artists. The Town of Monterey kinder keeps them segregated off to themselves. In the east here they keep such folks at Great Neck, Long Island.

Well, there is among them one Samuel Blythe. He and a fellow named Lorimer run the Saturday Evening Post. Sam Blythe knows more about politics and public men than any man living. A politician's scheme is as plain to Sam as a skunk's atmosphere.

Well, Sam was back here laterly to confer with Lorimer to see if it would be advisable to continue the Saturday Evening Post, or sell it to Henry Ford and combine it with the Dearborn Independent. Sam told me the worst story I ever heard.

Captain Tom James a bear hunter and cotton planter in Mississippi had some friends down to see him as they come into the living room one of the so called visitors saw a bottle of whiskey standing on the mantlepiece, and started over to get a drink.

"Hold one," said Captain James, "Don't touch that. It's rank poison. It's nother but wood alcohol colored up, and it will make you blind sure.

"Well, asked the man, disappointed, "What do you keep it around here for?"

"Oh," said Captain Tom," I am saving it for a man I know who is blind already."

RELIEVED BY KARNAK AFTER WASTING $3000

"I Wouldn't Have Believed Beforehand Karnak Could Do What It Has Done For My Wife," Declares Sioux City Man.

"If anybody had told me beforehand that five bottles of this new medicine, Karnak, was going to do my wife all the good that it had, why, I just wouldn't have believed it, for I had already spent over $3,000 on different medicines and treatments without being able to find anything that would reach her case. I tell you Karnak beats anything I ever heard of."

This enthusiastic statement was made the other day by M. A. Provancha, Box 130 Military Road, Route 3, Sioux City, Ia., in telling of the remarkable results that his wife is receiving from its use.

"I tell you my wife sure saw some suffering before she finally got hold of Karnak," continued Mr. Provancha. "Her case was one of fifteen years standing, and for the past years she had just gotten where she suffered both day and night. hSe could hardly eat enough to keep body and soul together, and just had to force down every mouthful. She said food seemed to form a lump in the pit of her stomach and at times she would simply double up with pain.

"Gas would always form on her stomach, heartburn and billousness would follow, and it would make her so miserable that often she just refused to eat a bite. Her nerves became so upset she couldn't rest at night, and in spite of all the money we paid out she could get no relief.

"And just think of it, we have only paid out $5 for the Karnak she has taken and now she can eat anything on the table. It seems almost past belief but it's every word the gospel truth. She enjoys her meals now and relishes every mouthful, and she looks one hundred per cent better and sleeps like a healthy child every night.

"We wouldn't be without Karnak in the house. This medicine has brought health and happiness to our home and we tell our friends and neighbors about it and never miss a chance to recommend it. Send anyone to us who wants to know more about this great medicine and we can certainly tell them enough."

Karnak is sold in Lincoln exclusively by the Harley Drug Co., in Havelock by the Baker Drug Store, and by the leading druggist in every town.—Advertisement.

FIND NO TRACE STORE ROBBERS

Value of Goods Taken About $1,000—Fingerprints Only Clew.

Robbers of the F P Sheldon general store at Nehawka Monday night was peculiar because of the wide variety of goods taken Walter Schroeder state finger print expert said following an investigation of the place Tuesday afternoon with Deputy State Sheriff Hasson and J L Edwards of the retailers' federation No trace of the robbers has been found

The value of the goods stolen was shown to be a little over $1 100 after a preliminary check Tuesday afternoon, Schroeder said

The job was "pulled" between two rains the first of which began at about 10 p m Monday night and the second at 3 a m Tuesday

Tracks indicated that two cars were used in the work and that the loading was done beside an elevator about a half block back of the store Schroeder said No one in town remembered seeing any cars late in the evening although a number of strangers are in the town for a chautauqua now in progress there

The officers are puzzled by the divergence of articles taken The thieves carried away men's and women's furnishings shoes ranging in size from men's to children's, a variety of foodstuffs and wound up with a case of eggs In thefts of this sort the officers said robbers usually specialize in silks or wearing apparel of some sort

The only clews of value are several good finger prints on a half pane of glass that the robbers removed from a rear window to gain entrance They opened the back door of the store from the inside A mechanic's bar was left in the building but they had evidently found no use for it

Appeals From Court Order for Property Sale to Pay Alimony

Frank Godenstein of Gage county is appealing to the Supreme court from a decree ordering the sale of property belonging to him, under execution process to justify a judgment for alimony expenses and attorney fees that his wife, Grace has obtained against him in connection with her divorce suit, in which she was given a writ of separation and the custody of their two young children

Goldenstein was ordered several years ago to pay her $8 000 alimony in four annual installments of $2 000 each besides $30 a month for the support of the two children, $12.50 per month for an expected child after its birth $50 for maternity expenses and $300 for her lawyer's services

He was alleged to have defaulted in some of these payments and the execution proceedings were then started to collect the money

Mrs Bessie Winsor has appealed from Lancaster county in the suit brought by herself for a divorce from Frank Winsor, where she failed to get a decree but her husband was granted a divorce on his cross petition Each charged the other with cruelty and using abusive language Winsor also accused his wife of keeping company with other men The court directed him to pay $50 for his wife's temporary alimony pending the suit and her attorney's fee Winsor is a brakeman for the Missouri Pacific railroad

Gas Tax Returns From 82 Dealers Show Good Gain

An increase of $2 746 in the payments of July gasoline tax to the state by 82 dealers in Nebraska over what was received from the same dealers for the previous month is shown in a comparison of the returns on file in the office of Chief Bass of the gasoline tax administration

There are over 400 dealers in the state so this represents not more than one fifth of the whole number All of those heard from so far are comparatively small concerns whose combined payments do not exceed one-tenth of the total revenue

If the same ratio of gain should appear in the reports of other dealers when they come in the gross receipts from gasoline tax for July will be $25 000 more or less above the June total of $245 000 Chief Bass however is conservative and looks for a gain of $15 000 or $20 000 He considers it certain that the July tax collections will yield over $260 000

In the first eleven days of August 140 reports were sent in whereas only sixty n were received the first eleven days in July

MRS. SCOTT SAYS SOLON MADE THREATS

Fordney at Saginaw Mich for advice as to the desirability of her becoming a candidate to oppose her husband at the last primary election was denied by Mrs Scott

Freadrick K Sikes formerly a house employe at the Lee House Washington testified by deposition that Mrs Scott had entertained Gilbert Bensinger a fellow guest at the hotel in her room there This was in 1923 after the Scotts had separated

Says Frequent Visitor

"I saw them often in Mrs Scott's room" Sikes deposed "I peeked through the keyhole and saw them sitting close together She usually was sitting on his knee"

Sikes said Bensinger was supposed to be a bootlegger

"Mrs Scott said to me 'This fellow Bensinger is awfully tight but he's got lots of money'" Sikes said He added that Mrs Scott and Bensinger were half shot lots of times

Sikes said he first got to know Mrs Scott when she was struck by an automobile while in front of the hotel and was brought into the lobby He carried her to her room he said

After she had been at the Lee House some time she got a room next to the one occupied by Bensinger the Sikes deposition said Mrs Scott and Bensinger went motoring in Bensinger's car three or four times a week and never were in before midnight the deposition said

Returns To Stand.

ALPHENA Mich Aug 12—By the Associated Press)—Mrs Edna Scott returned to the witness stand today with a chance to make good her recent promise that she would provide "plenty of thrills" in her fight on Congressman Frank D Scott's divorce bill

Circuit Judge Frank D Emerick yesterday adjourned court after Mrs Scott testified her husband had hurled profane epithets at her during a recess of the hearing last January

She also denied tearfully the use of unbecoming language toward her husband the night of their separation in Washington Offers of reconciliation which crept into the record during the reading of depositions yesterday were received with tilted chin by Mrs Scott and with a blank stare by the congressman

Further elaboration of what took place on the congressional junket to Panama, aboard the steamer Cristobal in 1921 is expected before Mrs Scott closes her case Liquor drinking and gambling were described yesterday in a deposition by Floren Ballaw, Filipino servant who also told of finding the congressman and his secretary, Miss Jane Kennedy alone in the Scott office at Washington

Deny "Noisy Party" Charge.

What Congressman Scott had previously described as a "noisy party" at his apartment the night of October 29, 1922, with Mrs Scott playing hostess to two army officers was pictured as a casual and perfectly proper call by Mrs Clifford Ireland, wife of the former Illinois congressman who said in her deposition that both men conducted themselves as gentlemen should

A deposition by Miss Gwynn Jones of Washington told of liquor at the Scott home which Mrs Scott said had been brought back from Panama on the Cristobal A party at the quarters of Capt Wilbur "Jazzbo" Sumner at Fort Meyers, Va, in October, 1922 which had been painted as a tete a tete between Mrs Scott and Captain Sumner was in reality a dinner in honor of a sister of Col William Mitchell former brigadier general one deposition said

Other testimony yesterday was that drinking was the regular thing in official circles of Washington [illegible]

That the Scotts kept a small supply of liquor at their apartment in the Wardman Park hotel

That mutual friends of the Scotts had tried unavailingly to reconcile the couple

CHEESE SHIPPED FROM COLUMBUS

New Factory Said To Be Making a Pronounced Success.

Others May Be Established In State In Near Future.

(Special to The Star)

COLUMBUS Neb Aug 12 The first shipment of cheese from the Alpina Dairy Products company plant, opened here one month ago was made this week The factory is the second of its kind to be licensed in Nebraska the first being at Scottsbluff

John and Carl Agenstein owners of the plant who came here from Darlington, Wis state that the quality of milk received from dairies around Columbus is better for cheese manufacturing purposes than that in Wisconsin One advantage here it is claimed is that there is a wide variety in the kinds of dairy cattle kept on the different farms while in Wisconsin dairymen generally concentrate on one breed in each particular section

It is possible that a similar factory will be opened either at Humphrey or Albion as a result of the success achieved by the Columbus institution A Wisconsin manufacturer was here last week and was surprised at the amount and quality of milk available in this section

Experts claim that milk for cheese making cannot be hauled for more than ten miles without deadening it P F Luchsinger who was instrumental in bringing the Agenstein brothers to Columbus, is advocating the establishment of other factories in this section for that reason

The Columbus company and other such institutions may prove the nucleus for dozens of cheese factories over the eastern portion of Nebraska Some of the best dairymen in the country are to be found on Platte county farms and development of the cheese industry should cause even greater interest in the possibilities of dairying

Value of Goods Taken About $1,000—Fingerprints Only Clew.

Robbery of the F. P. Sheldon general store at Nehawka Monday night was peculiar because of the wide variety of goods taken, Walter, Schroeder, state finger print expert, said following an investigation of the place Tuesday afternoon with Deputy State Sheriff Hasson and J. L. Edwards of the retailers' federation. No trace of the robbers has been found.

The value of the goods stolen was shown to be a little over $1,100 after a preliminary check Tuesday afternoon, Schroeder said.

The job was "pulled" between two rains, the first of which began at about 10 p. m. Monday night and the second at 3 a. m., Tuesday.

Tracks indicated that two cars were used in the work, and that the loading was done beside an elevator about a half block back of the store, Schroder said. No one in town remembered seeing any cars late in the evening, although a number of strangers are in the town for a chautauqua now in progress there.

The officers are puzzled by the divergence of articles taken. The thieves carried away men's and women's furnishings, shoes ranging in size from men's to children's, a variety of foodstuffs, and wound up with a case of eggs. In thefts of this sort, the officers said robbers usually specialize in silks or wearing apparel of some sort.

The only clews of value are several good finger prints on a half pane of glass that the robbers removed from a rear window to gain entrance. They opened the back door of the store from the inside. A mechanic's bar was left in the building, but they had evidently found no use for it.

Appeals From Court Order for Property Sale to Pay Alimony

Frank Godenstein of Gage county is appealing to the Supreme court from a decree ordering the sale of property belonging to him, under execution process, to justify a judgment for alimony, expenses and attorney fees that his wife, Grace, has obtained against him in connection with her divorce suit, in which she was given a writ of separation and the custody of their two young children.

Goldenstein was ordered several years ago to pay her $8,000 alimony in four annual installments of $2,000 each besides $30 a month for the support of the two children, $12.50 per month for an expected child after its birth, $50 for maternity expenses, and $500 for her lawyer's services.

He was alleged to have defaulted in some of these payments, and the execution proceedings were then started to collect the money.

Mrs. Bessie Winsor has appealed from Lancaster county in the suit brought by herself for a divorce from Frank Winsor, where she failed to get a decree but her husband was granted a divorce on his cross petition. Each charged the other with cruelty and using abusive language. Winsor also accused his wife of keeping company with other men. The court directed him to pay $80 for his wife's temporary alimony, pending the suit, and her attorney's fee. Winsor is a brakeman for the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Gas Tax Returns From 82 Dealers Show Good Gain

An increase of $2,746 in the payments of July gasoline tax to the state by 82 dealers in Nebraska, over what was received from the same dealers for the previous month, is shown in a comparison of the returns on file in the office of Chief Bass of the gasoline tax administration.

There are over 400 dealers in the state, so this represents not more than one-fifth of the whole number. All of those heard from so far are comparatively small concerns, whose combined payments do not exceed one-tenth of the total revenue.

If the same ratio of gain should appear in the reports of other dealers when they come in, the gross receipts from gasoline tax for July will be $25,000, more or less, above the June total of $245,000. Chief Bass, however, is conservative and looks for a gain of $15,000 or $20,000. He considers it certain that the July tax collections will yield over $260,000.

In the first eleven days of August 140 reports were sent in, whereas only sixteen were received the first eleven days in July.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Aug. 12.—The first shipment of cheese from the Alpina Dairy Products company plant, opened here one month ago, was made this week. The factory is the second of its kind to be licensed in Nebraska, the first being at Scottsbluff.

John and Carl Agenstein, owners of the plant, who came here from Darlington, Wis., state that the quality of milk received from dairies around Columbus is better for cheese manufacturing purposes than that in Wisconsin. One advantage here, it is claimed, is that there is a wide variety in the kinds of dairy cattle kept on the different farms, while in Wisconsin dairymen generally concentrate on one breed in each particular section.

It is possible that a similar factory will be opened either at Humphrey or Albion as a result of the success achieved by the Columbus institution. A Wisconsin manufacturer was here last week and was surprised at the amount and quality of milk available in this section.

Experts claim that milk for cheese-making cannot be hauled for more than ten miles without "deadening" it. P. F. Luchsinger, who was instrumental in bringing the Agenstein brothers to Columbus, is advocating the establishment of other factories in this section for that reason.

The Columbus company and other such institutions may prove the nucleus for dozens of cheese factories over the eastern portion of Nebraska. Some of the best dairymen in the country are to be found on Platte county farms and development of the cheese industry should cause even greater interest in the possibilities of dairying.

BOY IS DROWNED WHILE BATHING

Loses Life In Water On Farm Near Town Of Byron.

(Special to The Star)

BYRON, Neb., Aug. 12.—The second tragedy in one day occurred here late Monday afternoon when Cecil, 12-year-old son of Mrs. Mabel Jones, widow, proprietress of the Byron hotel, was accidently drowned in a pond on a farm about one and one-half miles south of Byron.

It is said three young farmer lads were in swimming with the Jones boy at the time he went under about seven feet of water.

The body was recovered about an hour after the drowning by men who found it lodged in the mud at the bottom.

OMAHA MAN IS SHOT BY WOMAN

Assailant Resents Story Alleged to Have Been Told About Her.

OMAHA, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Raymond J. Peterson, 26, a laborer, was shot and seriously wounded early last night by Mrs. Pearl Roddy following alleged gossip between the Peterson and Roddy families.

Mrs. Roddy told police that Peterson had threatened her several months ago when she objected to his treatment of Mrs. Peterson who until three weeks ago was a close friend. Mrs. Roddy also said that Peterson was attempting to separate her and her husband, Clarence Roddy, by saying she was keeping company with another man.

The shooting took place in the kitchen of the Roddy home. Peterson had followed the woman and her brother, Hugh Brady, after they had visited the Peterson home to determine the source of an alleged statement about Mrs. Roddy. The latter said she became frightened when Peterson seized her. The bullet pierced the abdomen and entered the liver.

Peterson's condition is critical.

Mrs. Roddy, her brother and husband are being held pending the outcome of Peterson's condition.

Identifies Child Found In Store

The 8-year-old girl who was found at the H. Herpolsheimer & Co. store Tuesday noon was identified that afternoon by Supt. C. E. McClain of the Humane society as Alice Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Houston, 227 South Eleventh street. The family arrived but recently from Rock Island, Ill., and told Mr. McClain, so he says, that they were accustomed to letting the girl play in the streets. He advised them to keep track of their child and care for it well.

Bigger meals—better digestion

The Buyer had been at lunch with this Salesman many times before.

"This lunch will cost you more today, Bill," he said to his visitor.

"How is that?" the other smiled.

"Well, I've found a way to fix that old indigestion of mine—by eating Life Saver Pep-o-mints. They've certainly helped me a lot."

* * *

Indigestion is a miserable thing. So many people suffer this way. If they only knew that simple old method our grandfathers used—peppermint.

And now it is available in a new and really convenient form—Pep-o-mint Life Savers; the little candy mints with the hole.

It sounds very simple and old-fashioned. But Pep-o-mint Life Savers really do the trick. Try them after meals when that heavy, logy feeling comes over you—or to relieve that irritating distress of indigestion. Pep-o-mint is displayed at all good stores so you may help yourself; also Wint-o-green, Cinn-o-mon, Lic-o-rice, Cl-o-ve and Vi-o-let. Five cents a package.—Life Savers, Inc., Port Chester, N. Y.

Ensemble Suits and Dresses 1/2 PRICE

A SPECIAL August Clearance for Thursday of many desirable ensemble suits and dresses at this liberal saving.

First See the Furniture in the Various August Sales Then Compare Our Values

A surprisingly large number of Rudge & Guenzel customers are those who have arrived at their decision to buy here through a careful process of elimination. Some see handsome Furniture elsewhere, but at too high a price—or almost decide to buy in other stores at about the price they want to pay, but hesitate, not quite satisfied with the design or quality—then come here and find the happy combination of BEAUTY, QUALITY, VALUE that exactly meets their desire.

That is why we are so ready to invite COMPARISON—knowing that our Furniture is well selected, from the best manufacturers, a large portion of it in designs not obtainable anywhere else. A large stock, greater variety and more new designs and exquisite decorative effects than ever before. And, above all, knowing that the reductions on much of this beautiful Furniture is as great and in many cases greater than on Furniture of commonplace character in some other stores.

Our Budget Plan

Our Budget Plan offers worthy folks the opportunity to use this Furniture while paying for it out of income. Many of these customers are people of considerable means, to whom this method of making expenditure square with income is an accommodation worth far more than our small charge for carrying the deferred amount. NEXT TITLE FIGHT IN WESTERN CITY

Dempsey and Promoter Fitz Have Turned Thumbs Down On New York.

Wills' Pilot Has His Chance To Pit Black Man Against The Champion.

BY DAVIS J WALSH

NEW YORK Aug 12—(I N S)—Floyd Fitzsimmons boxing promoter and collector of rare and well done autographs informed the writer this morning that he expected to secure obtain and otherwise take into captivity before nightfall the signature of Paddy Mullins to a contract for a Dempsey Wills match in 1926 Having duly exhibited the champion's signature to Mullins yesterday the Michigan City man will attempt to rush Mullins into the deal at another conference today

The writer wishes him luck for he will need it Paddy believes in shooting only when he sees the whites of their eyes and the strawberry mark under the left shoulder Show him $100 000 94 and he will begin to count the pennies

Mystery In Methods

Fitzsimmons declined to state when and where today's conference would take place The young man has become quite mysterious and is alleged to be wearing rubber heels on his finger tips He would not say what demands Mullins was making on behalf of Wills Neither would he divulge what site if any he had in mind for the bout

On the best of authority however the writer can say that it will take place somewhere between the Rocky mountains and the Gowanus canal

Site of Fight Selected.

I have the place for the bout lined up but I am more concerned right now with lining up Mullins Fitzsimmons said today I expect to sign him today for I have him just about convinced that Dempsey will not fight Wills in or near New York That eliminates Rickard Stoneham and all the other local promoters and leaves me in charge I've got the champion and that's more than anyone else can say

Informed that Jack Kearns has threatened to sign Dempsey for the Wills fight before the boxing commission Friday Fitzsimmons said with the air of coining an epigram

Gives Kearns Big Laugh

You can lead a horse to water but you cant make him drink Kearns cant sign for Dempsey with the slightest assurance that the champion will abide by the contract They have definitely split

As for Mullins the promoter intimated that he intended to bear down at all times and there would be no kidding

I am going after him hammer and tongs today he said But I wont fool around with him It will be now or never for Mullins as far as I am concerned I'm showing him something he has waited years to see and I dont expect him to quibble with his good fortune

Four Towns File Bids

Incidentally Fitzsimmons denied that he had promised Dempsey a cool million for the fight or in fact any stated sum He said there was nothing in the contract about a million dollars and added that four towns near Chicago stood ready to receive the extravaganza with open arms and non stop cash registers

Commish Threatens Walker

NEW YORK Aug 12—(A P)—Mickey Walker world's welter weight champion will be indefinitely suspended by the New York state athletic commission Friday unless he signs contracts and posts a bond for a title match with Dave Shade of California at that time This ruling was made by the commission at its regular weekly meeting yesterday

The welterweight king who was given a license to box Harry Greb middleweight champion at the Italian hospital fund matches upon assurance from him that he would meet Shade on or before August 15 has consistently refused to sign despite a $10 000 bond posted for him by Humbert J Fugazy promoter of the hospital fund bout The commission intimated that the bond will likely be forfeited unless the match is closed by Friday

Jack Kearns manager of Jack Dempsey and Micky Walker announced on his arrival here yesterday that he would attend the meeting of the New York state athletic commission Friday and definitely sign contracts for a Wills Dempsey match and a Walker Shade contest

HERE AND THERE IN BASEBALL

TWO GAMES THURSDAY

Landis Field was water logged Wednesday afternoon and the opening combat of the Lincoln Wichita series was called off

In cancelling the game, Manager Josh Clarke of the Links announced that the Thursday arrangement would provide for a doubleheader First game at 2 p m

Jimmie Christian probably will hurl the first game for the Links, while either Ted Pillette or Guy Cooper will be on the mound in the second

Jack Coffey, ivory hunter for the Cincinnati Reds and former manager at Denver and Des Moines in the Western, invaded the Lincoln camp Wednesday to inspect the Links and Izzies in action

Tearney Ready to Step Out

Announcement by Al R Tearney made Tuesday at Denver that he will resign the Western league presidency following the termination of the 1925 pennant race confirms reports which filtered out of the recent league meeting in Kansas City where he dropped the hint to his personal followers that he was about ready to pass over the reins to a successor

The promised resignation of Tearney foreshadows the election of Dale Gear of Topeka former Western and Texas league manager as the new head of the Western Names of Frank McMullen of Wichita and Fred Clarke former pilot of the Pittsburgh Pirates have been mentioned in connection with the Western presidency but McMullen although well qualified is little known to the club owners while Clarke has returned to Pittsburgh where he has been installed as vice president of the team and first aide to Manager McKechnie with whom he sits on the bench during every game Being closely affiliated now with the Pirates it is quite unlikely that Clarke would be interested in a minor league presidency

Gear Well Qualified

Gear's strongest advocate will be Barney Burch head of the Omaha club who has been boosting Gear while resisting efforts of the antis to unseat Tearney It may be said on behalf of the Topeka man that he has every qualification for the league presidency Ripe in baseball experience and well qualified from the standpoint of character and temperament Gear should make the league an excellent executive Gear if elected would be on the ground and stick on his job—something Al Tearney has not done because of his personal business activities in Chicago

The club owners according to rumor are seriously considering the inauguration of a policy of salary retrenchment They have been paying far more in salaries than the income justifies Only three clubs in the league—Denver Des Moines and Oklahoma City—stand to earn even a respectable profit on the investment The others will be in the red when the 1925 books are balanced at the end of the campaign Dale Gear would fit in with the enforcement of a retrenchment policy whereas Tearney could not because he was out of touch with the league

Greg Still on Job

Recent press reports to the effect that Howard Gregory had been dispossessed in favor of one Wetzel former Hannibal Mo team leader proved to be a rich hoax Greg is to stay at the helm of the Isbell ship while the Hannibal gent who is more or less obscure is to take the managership of a team in the Western association

Bears Do Some Slipping

Taking a double defeat over the knuckles Tuesday the Denver Bears have slipped back toward the bunch until they have a mere one-game advantage over the Des Moines Demons with the Oklahoma City Indians crowding closely on the Demons heels The four months competition to date has convinced league followers that the Bears Demons and Indians are the class of the league—that one of the three eventually will cop the rag St Joseph and Wichita still are in the running but neither is likely to factor in the final settlement

Koupal to Join Demons

Acquisition of Lou Koupal right hander who helped so much to pitch the Omaha Burch Rods into the 1924 pennant should go a lot of water over the Des Moines club's pennant wheel The Demons gave up Southpaw Oldham for a roll of Pittsburgh cash receiving Koupal as part payment but Koupal may be even more valuable than Oldham in the final lap of the pennant race The Demons have two winning southpaw pitchers in Moon and Thomas and the club really was in need of a dependable right hander Assuming that Koupal should pitch as effectively for Des Moines as he did for Omaha last season the Demons are a better looking bet than the Bears

Masculine Stuff Stolen By Women

COLUMBUS Neb Aug 1 —The women of Platte county have delivered the knockout blow to masculine supremacy

First they demanded the vote and learned to talk politics as well as dad Then they invaded little brother's swimming hole and used big brother's golf pants for a pattern and made themselves knickers Now they have bested the men at that great and honorable American summer pastime—razzing the ump

When Platte Center and Columbus nines met on the local diamond early this week the Platte Center women came to town en masse and outyelled razzed hooted and outboosted the men to a fazzle dazzle Here and there some man would try to speak a big word but he couldn't get a word in edgewise Every masculine baseball enthusiast sneaked off home like a licked pup

Incidentally Platte Center won the game 1 to 0

The girls basketball team of Edmonton Alberta holder of the world championship has a record of 4? consecutive victories

FAVOR HASTINGS FOR '26 TOURNEY

Tennis Men Prefer to Stage Racquet Fest In Adams County Capital.

RAIN HALTS PLAY

A drenching rain Tuesday night caused the postponement of Wednesday morning play in the Nebraska state tennis tournament It was believed that play could be resumed in the afternoon

The 1926 Nebraska tennis tournament will be held either in Hastings or Omaha according to a decision reached at the annual meeting of the organization held at the Phi Sigma Kappa house Tuesday evening

The association went on record as favoring Hastings the final decision to be made by the board of directors within thirty days after the closing of the 1925 tournament

Lincoln the scene of the past five state tournaments will be in position to entertain the '26 gathering according to announcement made at the meeting Revision of university campus plans which provides for removal of the present courts to near the new field house would handicap the university in entertaining the meet next year

Supt A H Staley of the Hastings public schools extended the invitation from Hastings and Ray Phelps officer of the Omaha Tennis club spoke on behalf of Omaha

Directors Chosen

Directors of the association selected at the annual meeting were Charles Patterson Arapahoe Paul Bek Seward Charles Mathewson Walthill Ray Phelps Omaha Ralph Weaverling Lincoln Claude Douglas Fremont H D Newman Hastings Harry Ellis Holdrege John Calvert York Ray Larson Plattsmouth

Gregg McBride of Lincoln was chosen president of the association and Joseph Bethscheider of West Point was selected vice president

The present president and secretary will hold over during the thirty day period or until the place for the next tournament has been decided upon according to decision made at the Tuesday evening meeting

DOFFS HIS DICER TO UTAH MAULER

Menke Rates Jack Dempsey As World Champion Of Real Sort.

No Title-Holder In History Can Match Knockouts With Dempsey.

BY FRANK G MENKE

(Copyright 1925 by King Features Syndicate Inc)

It is more than passing strange that many of the real wise men of the world of bouncing knuckles hold tenaciously to the conviction that Jack Dempsey is quite a bo hunk as a fistic champion

In the entire history of ring I in no king of the realm of whirling mitts has performed quite so spectacularly as Dempsey accomplished It is as heroic as Dempsey—and yet is a certain reward been scoffed at quite so lustily

Based on the records alone Dempsey eclipsed every heavyweight titleholder in the matter of one round knockouts in total knockouts and average knockouts per fight And yet there are men who claim that not only is he NOT the greatest champion but that he really isn't great

Not Justified By Facts

So far as can be observed so far as can be concluded this spoofing of Dempsey is neither fair nor justified by comparative records—and if facts and figures do not completely establish him as the greatest of all time then day does not follow the night

Those who hold Dempsey in certain scorn as regards his fighting greatness will when assailed by his amazing record of knockout victories finally snarl

Well what if he did knockout a lot of men They were all bums He never whipped a good fighter in his lifetime

It may be that the calibre of Dempsey's foemen has not been wonderful but whether they were great warriors or just a mess of dubs the fact is indisputable that Dempsey won from them And no man can do more than vanquish all opposition that will or can give him battle

Twenty five Quick Kayoes

Dempsey has had about 65 fights in his career—and won 47 of those contests He knocked out twenty-five men in less than one round

There isn't a heavyweight—living or dead—whose achievements remotely approach that of Dempsey in winning more than one third of his fights in less than three minutes and knocking out nearly five out of every six men that he has faced

Dempsey scored 15 knockouts in succession failed to stop his next foeman and then came right back with a string of ten straight sleep victories

Consider Case of John L

When it comes to hitting there never was perhaps never will be a more murderous puncher than Dempsey The mighty John L Sullivan champion over a sweep of ten years was able to knock out only a handful of fighters in that long sweep of time and there is little dispute over the fact that the general class of Sullivan's opponents was inferior to Dempsey's rivals since 1918

Jim Corbett won the title in 1892 knocked out Charlie Mitchell in 1894 and was dethroned in 189? Bob Fitzsimmons around whom so many haloes have been tossed was knocked out in his first battle as defender of the title And Fitz before he was champion and afterward assembled a knockout record that's painfully insignificant as compared with Dempsey

Was Jeff Really Great?

Many call Jim Jeffries a great champion a marvelous fighter Yet the unassailable fact is that Jeff while champ perhaps took more beatings than any heavyweight king of modern times Fitzsimmons punched him bowlegged in both their battles Corbett chopped him to ribbons for 2? rounds Tom Sharkey in the opinion of many actually whipped Jeffries in 25 rounds in Coney Island and was robbed of the decision

Jeff's knockout triumphs were so few as to be almost a negligible quantity And even his most ardent admirers won't vehemently dispute that Jeff won not because he was a great fighter but because he was a glutton for punishment—and that the other fellows went down to defeat more because of weariness than from punching him than from the beatings Jeff might have doled out

Johnson Merely Clever

Jack Johnson was a clever boxer—and nothing else Jess Willard had giant size to recommend him—and little more

But Dempsey has 47 knockouts in 65 battles to support a contention that he's great He has victories over the most gigantic fighter of modern times—Willard—and huge men like Morris Fulton and a score of others as proof of his tremendous hitting power

And beyond all that his record shows that of all the men he has faced in more than ten years of battling only three avoided having K O written beside their names in Dempsey's record A few—Gunboat Smith Billy Miske and some others—were able to go the route with Dempsey in their first outing But the next time Dempsey got a shot at them he pounded them into a coma

If all those things do not make him great and if his record compared with other champions doesn't make him the greatest what must a man do to establish complete supremacy among men who are fair minded and unbiased?

Four Western Towns Bidding for Dempsey-Wills

NEXT TITLE FIGHT IN WESTERN CITY

Dempsey and Promoter Fitz Have Turned Thumbs Down On New York.

Wills' Pilot Has His Chance To Pit Black Man Against The Champion.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—(I. N. S.)—Floyd Fitzsimmons, boxing promoter and collector of rare and well done autographs, informed the writer this morning that he expected to secure, obtain and otherwise take into captivity before nightfall the signature of Paddy Mullins to a contract for a Dempsey-Wills match in 1926. Having duly exhibited the champion's signature to Mullins yesterday, the Michigan City man will attempt to rush Mullins into the deal at another conference today.

The writer wishes him luck, for he will need it. Paddy believes in shooting only when he sees the whites of their eyes and the strawberry mark under the left shoulder. Show him $100,000.94 and he will begin to count the pennies.

Mystery In Methods.

Fitzsimmons declined to state when and where today's conference would take place. The young man has become quite mysterious and is alleged to be wearing rubber heels on his finger tips. He would not say what demands Mullins was making on behalf of Wills. Neither would he divulge what site, if any, he had in mind for the bout.

On the best of authority, however, the writer can say that it will take place somewhere between the Rocky mountains and the Gowanus canal.

Site of Fight Selected.

"I have the place for the bout lined up, but I am more concerned right now with lining up Mullins," Fitzsimmons said today. "I expect to sign him today, for I have him just about convinced that Dempsey will not fight Wills in or near New York. That eliminates Rickard, Stoneham and all the other local promoters and leaves me in charge. I've got the champion and that's more than anyone else can say."

Informed that Jack Kearns has threatened to sign Dempsey for the Wills fight before the boxing commission Friday, Fitzsimmons said, with the air of coining an epgram:

Gives Kearns Big Laugh.

"You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink. Kearns can't sign for Dempsey with the slightest assurance that the champion will abide by the contract. They have definitely split."

As for Mullins, the promoter intimated that he intended to bear down at all times and there would be no kidding.

"I am going after him hammer and tongs today," he said. "But I won't fool around with him. It will be now or never for Mullins, as far as I am concerned. I'm showing him something he has waited years to see and I don't expect him to quibble with his good fortune."

Four Towns File Bids.

Incidentally, Fitzsimmons denied that he had promised Dempsey a cool million for the fight or, in fact, any stated sum. He said there was nothing in the contract about a million dollars and added that four towns near Chicago stood ready to receive the extravaganza with open arms and non-stop cash registers.

Commish Threatens Walker.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, will be indefinitely suspended by the New York state athletic commission Friday unless he signs contracts and posts a bond for a title match with Dave Shade of California at that time. This ruling was made by the commission at its regular weekly meeting yesterday.

The welterweight king, who was givetn a license to box Harry Greb, middleweight champion, at the Italian hospital fund matches upon assurance from him that he would meet Shade on or before August 15, has consistently refused to sign, despite a $10,000 bond posted fir him by Humbert J. Fugazy, promoter of the hospital fund bout. The commission intimated that the bond will likely be fortified unless the match is closed by Friday.

Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey and Micky Walker, announced on his arrival here yesterday that he would attend the meeting of the New York state athletic commission Friday and definitely sign contracts for a Will-Dempsey match and a Walker-Shade contest.

HERE AND THERE IN BASEBALL

TWO GAMES THURSDAY.

Landis Field was water-logged Wednesday afternoon and the opening combat of the Lincoln-Wichita series was called off.

In cancelling the game, Manager Josh Clarke of the Links announced that the Thursday arrangement would provide for a doubleheader. First game at 2 p. m.

Jimmie Christian probably will hurl the first game for the Links, while either Ted Pillette or Guy Cooper will be on the mound in the second.

Jack Coffey, ivory hunter for the Cincinnati Reds and former manager at Denver and Des Moines in the Western, invaded the Lincoln camp Wednesday to inspect the Links and Izzies in action.

Tearney Ready to Step Out.

Announcement by Al R. Tearney, made Tuesday at Denver, that he will resign the Western league presidency, following the termination of the 1925 pennant race, confirms reports which filtered out of the recent league meeting in Kansas City, where he dropped the hint to his personal followers that he was about ready to pass over the reins to a successor.

The promised resignation of Tearney foreshadows the election of Dale Gear of Topeka, former Western and Texas league manager, as the new head of the Western. Names of Frank McMullen of Wichita and Fred Clarke, former pilot of the Pittsburgh Pirates, have been mentioned in connection with the Western presidency, but McMullen, although well qualified, is little known to the club owners, while Clarke has returned to Pittsburgh, where he has been installed as vice-president of the team and first aide to Manager McKechnie, with whom he sits on the bench during every game. Being closely affiliated now with the Pirates, it is quite unlikely that Clarke would be interested in a minor league presidency.

Gear Well Qualified.

Gear's strongest advocate will be Barney Burch, head of the Omaha club, who has been boosting Gear while resisting efforts of the "antis" to unseat Tearney. It may be said on behalf of the Topeka man that he has every qualification for the league presidency. Ripe in baseball experience and well qualified from the standpoint of character and temperament, Gear should make the league an excellent executive. Gear, if elected, would be on the ground and stick on his job—something Al Tearney has not done because of his personal business activities in Chicago.

The club owners, according to rumor, are seriously considering the inauguration of a policy of salary retrenchment. They have been paying far more in salaries than the income justifies. Only three clubs in the league—Denver, Des Moines and Oklahoma City—stand to earn even a respectable profit on the investment. The others will be in the "red" when the 1925 books are balanced at the end of the campaign. Dale Gear would fit in with the enforcement of a retrenchment policy whereas Tearney could not because he was out of touch with the league.

Greg Still on Job.

Recent press reports to the effect that Howard Gregory had been dispossessed in favor of one Wetzel former Hannibal, Mo., team leader, proved to be a rich hoax. Greg is to stay at the helm of the Isbeli ship, while the Hannibal gent, who is more or less obscure, is to take the managership of a team in the Western association.

Bears Do Some Slipping.

Taking a double defeat over the knuckles Tuesday, the Denver Bears have slipped back toward the bunch until they have a mere one-game advantage over the Des Moines Demons, with the Oklahoma City Indians crowding closely on the Demons' heels. The four months' competition to date has convinced league followers that the Bears, Demons and Indians are the class of the league—that one of the three eventually will cop the rag. St. Joseph and Wichita still are in the running, but neither is likely to factor in the final settlement.

Koupal to Join Demons.

Acquisition of Lou Koupal, right-hander who helped so much to pitch the Omaha Burch Rods into the 1924 pennant, should pour a lot of water over the Des Moines club's pennant wheel. The Demons gave up Southpaw Oldham for a roll of Pittsburgh cash, receiving Koupal as part payment, but Koupal may be even more valuable than Oldham in the final lap of the pennant race. The Demons have two winning southpaw pitchers in Moon and Thomas, and the club really was in need of a dependable right-hander. Assuming that Koupal should pitch as effectively for Des Moines as he did for Omaha last season, the Demons are a better looking bet than the Bears.

Masculine Stuff Stolen By Women

COLUMBUS, Neb., Aug. 12.—The women of Platte county have delivered the knockout blow to masculine supremacy.

First, they demanded the vote and learned to talk politics as well as dad. Then they invaded little brother's swimming hole and used big brother's golf pants for a pattern and made themselves knickers. Now they have bested the men at that ancient and honorable American summer pastime—"razzing the ump."

When Platte Center and Columbus nines met on the local diamond early this week, the Platte Center women came down en masse and out-yelled, out-razzed, out-hooted and out-boasted the men to a frazzle-dazzie. Here and there some mere man would try to spring a bright one, but he couldn't get a word in edgewise. Every masculine baseball authority sneaked off home like a licked pup.

The girls' basketball team of Edmondson, Alberta, holder of the world championship, has a record of 42 consecutive victories.

FAVOR HASTINGS FOR '26 TOURNEY

Tennis Men Prefer to Stage Racquet Fest In Adams County Capital.

RAIN HALTS PLAY.

A drenching rain Tuesday night caused the postponement of Wednesday morning play in the Nebraska state tennis tournament. Is was believed that play could be resumed in the afternoon.

The 1926 Nebraska tennis tournament will be held either in Hastings or Omaha, according to a decision reached at the annual meeting of the organization, held at the Phi Sigma Kappa house Tuesday evening.

The association went on record as favoring Hastings, the final decision to be made by the board of directors within thirty days after the closing of the 1925 tournament.

Lincoln, the scene of the past five state tournaments, will be in position to entertain the '26 gathering, according to announcement made at the meeting. Revision of university campus plans, which provides for removal of the present courts to near the new field house, would handicap the university in entertaining the meet next year.

Supt. A. H. Staley of the Hastings public schools extended the invitation from Hastings and Ray Phelps, officer of the Omaha Tennis club, spoke on behalf of Omaha.

Directors Chosen.

Directors of the association selected at the annual meeting were Charles Patterson, Arapahoe; Paul Bek, Seward; Charles Mathewson, Walthill; Ray Phelps, Omaha; Ralph Weaverling, Lincoln; Claude Douglas, Fremont; H. D. Newman, Hastings; Harry Ellis, Holdrege; John Calvert, York; Ray Larson, Plattsmouth.

Gregg McBride of Lincoln was chosen president of the association and Joseph Bethscheider of West Point was selected vice-president.

The present president and secretary will hold over during the thirty-day period or until the place for the next tournament has been decided upon, according to decision made at the Tuesday evening meeting.

Pirates Even Series With Gotham Club

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Pittsburgh evened the series with New York yesterday by winning the second game, 7 to 4. The Pirates got to Dean in the eighth and scored five runs on doubles by Carey, Barnhart and Moore, passes to Cuyler and Gooch and Morrison's single. Kremer started for the Pirates, but was relieved in the seventh when a pinch-hitter batted for him and Johnny Morrison took up the burden. Dean pitched well until the eighth, Glenn Wright's homer in the second inning being the only damaging clout obtained off his delivery prior to the disastrous eighth. A crowd of 22,000 witnessed the game. By innings: R H E

Braves Knock Down Cubs.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12. — The Boston Braves went on a batting rampage yesterday and trounced the Cubs, 9 to 2, gaining an even break in the four-game series. Larry Benton was in fine form and let the Cubs down with four hits, two of which came in the eighth inning with a couple bases on balls, which gave the home club its only runs. In the first inning two of the visitors, Mann and Felix, batted out of turn, but the error was not discovered until after the side had been retired and three runs registered. By innings: R H E

Tournament at North Platte.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Tournament play started yesterday in the Western Nebraska golf tournament, held at the local country club, with sixteen in the championship flight Fred Seaman, youthful North Platte golfer, was the medalist of the opening day's play, when he shot the eighteen holes in 75, and wins the beautiful silver trophy. Harry Lowell, North Platte, played a close second with a 76.

FANS HOWL WHEN 'ACE' GETS DRAW

Crowd Decided Hudkins Had Been Outfought And Threw Cushions.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—Ace Hudkins, Nebraska, and Lou Paluso, Salt Lake, lightweights, fought a ten-round draw here last night. A shower of cushions by fans, who thought Paluso was entitled to a win, greeted the decision.

Paluso substituted for Phil Salvadore and was looked upon in fight circles as a set-up for the Nebraskan. The Salt Lake fighter, however, showed an unexpected amount of speed and apparently had Ace bewildered through a large part of the bout.

Principals in the double main event at the Olympic auditorium here tonight finished training today. Jackie Fields will meet Johnny Lamar in a six-round bout. Tommy Cello and Tommy O'Brien will go the ten-round route.

Huffman Wants Carpentier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—An offer of a match with Sailor Eddie Huffman in San Francisco this fall was cabled Francois Descamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, by "Kid" Herman, matchmaker of the North and Athletic club, yesterday. DENVER, Colo., Aug. 12.—The Denver club's lead in the Western league race was whittled down to a one-game advantage yesterday when the Bears were defeated by the Oklahoma City Indians in both games of a doubleheader, 9 to 5 and 4 to 2. Brown outpitched three Denver hurlers in the first game and Roberts had the edge over two Bear twirlers in the second. Hitting by Funk and McDaniel factored materially in the Indians' double victory. POWELL, Neb., Aug. 12.—Powell strengthened its hold on first place in the Jefferson County league Sunday when the Powell club easily defeated Daykin on the Powell diamond by a 7 to 1 score. Knispel's sensational catch of Jarchow's drive to deep center was the feature of the game.

Powell won from Fairbury last Wednesday by a 10 to 1 count. In other Sunday games, Endicott defeated Gladstone, 5 to 4; Steele City beat Reynolds, 3 to 2; Fairbury trimmed Harbine, 17 to 3.

Sox Smother Yanks Under Flood of Hits

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(A.P.)—Chicago defeated New York yesterday, 15 to 2, marking the fifth straight defeat for the Yankees. The White Sox made 19 hits off four Yankee twirlers, scoring seven runs in the seventh. Hooper led the batting attack against the Yankees with five hits, including a triple, in five times at bat. Every man on the White Sox team, with the exception of Grabowski, hit one or more time. By innings: R H E

Macks Nose Ahead of Browns.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—The Philadelphia Athletics made it two straight over St. Louis by winning yesterday, 3 to 2. Jim Poole's home run in the sixth inning and his stop of Robertson's smash in the ninth with the bases full saved the day for the Mackmen. The triumph marked Rommel's twentieth of the season. During the first five innings, the knuckle ball star did not allow a hit and the only man to reach base got there on an error. By innings: R H E

Red Sox Shut Out Tigers.

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—The Red Sox shut out the Tigers yesterday, 1 to 0, in a pitchers' battle between Ruffing and Collins. Boston's run was scored in the second inning after two were out on a triple by Rogell, followed by Lee's single. Two Tiger runners were thrown out at the plate. The victory was Boston's first against Detroit here this season. By innings: R H E

Five men have swam it: Captain Matthew Webb, an American, in 1875; William Burgess, an Englishman; John Sullivan, an American; Enrique Tirabocchi, an Argentine, and Charles Toth, an American. Sullivan took 25 hours 30 minutes. The Argentine made the fast time of 16 hours 30 minutes.

Menke Rates Jack Dempsey As World Champion Of Real Sort.

No Title-Holder In History Can Match Knockouts With Dempsey.

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

(Copyright 1925 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

It is more than passing strange that many of the real wise men of the world of bouncing knuckles hold tenaciously to the conviction that Jack Dempsey is quite a bohunk as a fistic champion.

In the entire history of ringdom, no king of the real of whirling mitts has performed quite so spectacularly as Dempsey, accomplished deeds as heroic as Dempsey—and yet, as a certain "reward," been scoffed at quite so lustily.

Based on the records alone Dempsey eclipsed every heavyweight titleholder in the matter of one-round knockouts, in total knockouts and average knockouts per fight. And yet there are men who claim that not only is he NOT the greatest champion, but that he really isn't great.

Not Justified By Facts.

So far as can be observed, so far as can be concluded, this spoofing of Dempsey is neither fair nor justified by comparative records—and if facts and figures do not completely establish him as the greatest of all time, then day does not follow the night.

Those who hold Dempsey in certain scorn as regards his fighting greatness will, when assailed by his amazing record of knockout victories, finally snarl:

"Well, what if he did knockout a lot of men? They were all bums. He never whipped a good fighter in his lifetime."

It may be that the calibre of Dempsey's foemen has not been wonderful, but whether they were great warriors or just a mess of dubs, the fact is indisputable that Dempsey won from them. And no man can do more than vanquish all opposition that will or can give him battle.

Twenty-five Quick Kayoes.

Dempsey has had about 65 fights in his career—and won 47 of those contests. He knocked out twenty-five men in less than one round.

There isn't a heavyweight—living or dead—whose achievements remotely approach that of Dempsey in winning more than one-third of his fights in less than three minutes and knocking out nearly five out of every six men that he has faced.

Dempsey scored 15 knockouts in succession, failed to stop his next foeman and then came right back with a string of ten straight sleep victories.

Consider Case of John L.

When it comes to hitting, there never was, perhaps never will be, a more murderous puncher than Dempsey. The mighty John L. Sullivan, champion over a sweep of ten years, was able to knock out only a handful of fighters in that long sweep of time and there is little dispute over the fact that the general class of Sullivan's opponents was inferior to Dempsey's rivals since 1918.

Jim Corbett won the title in 1892, knocked out Charlie Mitchell in 1894 and was dethroned in 1897. Bob Fitzsimmons, around whom so many haloes have been tossed, was knocked out in his first battle as defender of the title. And Fitz, before he was champion, and afterward, assembled a knockout record that's painfully insignificant as compared with Dempsey.

Was Jeff Really Great?

Many call Jim Jefferies a great champion—a marvelous fighter. Yet the unassailable fact is that Jeff, while champ, perhaps took more beatings than any heavyweight king of modern times. Fitzsimmons punched him bowlegged in both their battles; Corbett chopped him to ribbons for 22 rounds; Tom Sharkey, in the opinion of many, actually whipped Jerrries in 25 rounds in Coney Island and was robbed of the decision.

Jeff's knockout triumphs were so few as to be almost a negligible quantity. And even his most ardent admirers won't vehemently disputed that Juff won not because he was a great fighter but because he was a glutton for punishment—and that the other fellows went down to defeat more because of weariness than from punching him than from the beatings Jeff might have doled out.

Johnsn Merely Clever.

But Dempsey has 47 knockouts in 65 battles to support a contention that he's great. He has victories over the most gigantic fighter of modern times—Willard—and huge men like Morris, Firpo, Fulton and a score of others as proof of his tremendous hitting power.

And beyond all that his record shows, that of all the men he has faced in more than ten years of battling, only three avoided having "K. O." written beside their names in Dempsey's record. A few—Gunboat Smith, Billy Miske and some others—were able to go the route with Dempsey in their first outing. But the next time Dempsey got a shot at them he pounded them into a coma.

If all those things do not make him great, and if his record compared with other champions doesn't make him the greatest, what must a man do to establish complete supremacy among men who are fair-minded and unbiased?

THE ? BOX

Q: During a recent ball game at the state prison, the pitcher was relieved and transferred to third base. He was not taken out of the game. The new pitcher finished the inning. When the next inning started, the first pitcher returned to the mound, being transferred from third. Was the latter transfer legal?—J. H. Lancaster, Neb.

A: Yes, perfectly legal. Any player in the game may switch positions as often as the team captain pleases. The only requirement in the rules to interfere with that arrangement is that when a new pitcher goes in, he must pitch to the first batsman he faces until the batter has been retired or reaches first base.

Q: Umpire calls a balk on the pitcher. Does the balk permit a runner to advance one base or does it merely send the batter to first?—STAR READER, Wymore, Neb.

A: When balk is called on pitcher, each runner on base advances one base. If runner is on third, a balk permits him to score. Under no circumstances, may a batter go to first on a balk. In case catcher interferes with batsman, the latter should be sent to first, but he never goes to first when balk is called on pitcher.

ECZEMA

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S.S.S. are really amazing!

MANY people imagine that eczema or tetter needs only some external application on the skin in order to get relief This is because the attention of the sufferer is so violently directed to the intense burning and itching which accompanies this disease Try as they may—permanent relief will never be theirs until the disease laden blood is thoroughly cleansed

We know there is one thing that stops eczema and that is more red blood cells! S S S builds them by the million! You can increase your red blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it Skin eruptions, eczema, with all its fiery, skin digging torture, and its soul tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go when the tide of blood cells begins to roll in! Blood cells are the fighting giants of Nature! S S S builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826

S S S is one of the greatest blood cell builders blood cleansers and body strengtheners known to us mortals! ECZEMA

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S.S.S. are really amazing!

MANY people imagine that eczema or tetter needs only some external application on the skin in order to get relief. This is because the attention of the sufferer is so violently directed to the intense burning and itching which accompanies this disease. Try as they may—permanent relief will never be theirs until the disease laden blood is thoroughly cleansed.

We know there is one thing that stops eczema and that is more red-blood-cells! S.S.S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it. Skin eruptions, eczema, with all its fiery, skin digging torture, and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting giants of Nature! S.S.S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826.

S.S.S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body strengtheners known to us mortals! When you put these facts together,—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. S.S.S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S.S.S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs eczema, clears the skin, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, and gives you that more up and going appearance.

Civilization's Battle. Not a Joke, Exactly. More Pogroms. Life Longer, Bigger Children.

By Arthur Brisbane.

The first American fliers forming the new Lafayette squadron have arrived in Casa Blanca in Morocco and will soon be with their French brothers above the fighting lines of the Riffs.

Those young Americans have gone abroad for excitement and to prove their friendship for France. But whether they know it or not they will do good work for civilization every time they drop a bomb to convince the Riffs that Mohammed and his teachings do not represent the Almighty.

Much more important to civilization than the Smyrna earthquakes are the Mohammedan uprisings in the east and in Africa. French flying machines probably will establish order in northern Africa. And in doing so the French will render service to civilization.

The world cannot afford to see any increase in the power of those that follow Mohammed as the prophet teaching and believing his bloody doctrines.

The outbreaks against the French in Syria are serious. Individual bodies of French troops have been wiped out by surprises. The French with flying machines and greater efficiency can be relied upon to adjust matters in Syria. Those ancient regions around Damascus will know what modern science means.

This country should remember that France is making civilization's fight and the fight for white man rule on earth in her African and eastern fighting.

We really do not care to arbitrate thanks for the offer.

The supply of coal and the price of coal are matters important to the public. Mr Lewis believes that the arbitrators would be framed against him. He may be right and may be wrong. That has nothing to do with the right of the public to have something to say about coal mines coal prices and coal strikes.

Mr Lewis doesn't help his side or the effort of the men to get higher pay with their 'checkoff' to strengthen the union when he treats the question of coal supply as a matter for sarcastic jest. It's serious to the public.

Norman Hapgood cables from Europe alarming information about conditions in Russia particularly in the Ukraine and the danger of Jewish massacres on a huge scale.

There is only too good reason to fear that an end of the bolshevik government which could be brought about only by an outbreak on the part of the peasants might be followed by fearful outrages including Jewish massacres.

However bolshevism shows no signs of failing just now. The peasants owe to bolshevism the fact that they own land on which they once worked as miserable slaves.

Bolshevist leaders are many of them Jews and in addition all of them are anxious to make a good appearance before the world.

Much as they despise capitalistic civilization the soviet leaders wants its good opinion at least until they become stronger.

All over the United States the average age of man is increasing.

Every year saved in adult life means an increase in the nation's wealth. It costs money to bring up children as well as effort and anxiety.

In the state of New York the average age has risen from 24 years in 1840 to 30 years now. This means that common sense science and good doctors have added six years to the average age of every individual.

The years are added in the money earning period. Suppose the average adult's work is worth to his nation $10 a day and that's a low estimate. You can figure out for yourself how much it means in money to add six years to every adult's life.

Cut $10 to $5 cut that amount in half to allow for women and others not working and you still have a saving an increase of national wealth to the tune of 75 billions of dollars a year.

Children in Great Britain are bigger than they were desks in the schools are too small for this generation. That's good news for the future of the British empire.

British children now get outdoor exercise instead of spending their youth in mills as they used to do. The British government got the hint when it became every day harder to find men of right size for the army. The English race was visibly growing smaller.

They [illegible] children to keep them small enough to go down chimneys and grinding up children in mills and factories was a bad idea.

They passed laws to stop that. We tried to pass such laws in this country but our distinguished supreme court told us it wasn't constitutional to interfere with the exploitation of child life.

This country is going to have a commercial flying fleet soon and fortunately there isn't any doubt about it.

President Coolidge [illegible] ... ing his counsel high finance the [illegible] interested.

and plans ... flying machine. What he plans he usually does.

John Hays Hammond and others are interested in a $5,000,000 commercial flying corporation to be managed perhaps by Owen D Young, the financial genius of the Dawes plan.

The United States atmosphere will soon be full of flying machines then goodbye worry about foreign attack.

Ask Pardon For McCray

WASHINGTON Aug 12 — Attorney General Sargent was asked by an Indiana delegation today to recommend a pardon for Warren T McCray former governor of Indiana who has served about fifteen months of a ten year sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary imposed after his conviction on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

GOOD AUDIENCE AT ASSEMBLY

Many Hear Thurman 'Dusty' Miller's Humorous Lecture Despite Rain.

Rain did not keep a large audience from attending Epworth assembly Tuesday evening [illegible] ... singing orchestra and a humorous lecture by Thurman Dusty Miller an Ohio newspaper man.

Costumed as gay Mexicans [illegible] singing playing or doing both at the same time the orchestra presented a pleasing program including cello violin and voice solos. The following numbers were given: Barcarolle, La Paloma, O Come to the Fair, Yearning, Yes, [illegible] ... I Am The Swan and The Rosary.

Introduced by O J Fee Dusty Miller did not talk on any subject in particular but told a lot of quaint stories and slipped a little advice on the side.

Fate in Our Own Hands

The fate of your town rests on you he said. If you can't make things burn up here you'll never be able to do it any place else.

"Do things when you don't have to do them and you'll set a real example. Your success and mine is nothing more than the measure of our service."

There are [illegible] cent that feel people of towns cut. Indecision indifference and intolerance. Guessing right fifty-one times out of a hundred will make a success someone said but you can't guess right if you don't decide on it. So many people speak always of they doing things or their school church or enterprise. Make it our school or town or it won't amount to much. As to intolerance there are many people who are willing to do things but it must be done their way. Like a much married man said I'd like to live as one but I can't make her understand that I'm the one.

You can't get along without people Mr Miller declared and therefore one of the main studies should be that of learning how to get along with them.

THE WEATHER

The storm center is now over southeastern Iowa and heavy rain has fallen in southern Iowa eastern Missouri and northern Illinois and lighter rain in northern Iowa Nebraska the Dakotas and on the eastern slope of the Rockies. Moderately high pressure over the northern Rockies is attended by cooling and cooler weather in the mountain states and the upper Missouri valley. The weather is mostly fair and temperatures moderate in eastern and southern states.

Market Quotations

GRAIN MARKETS.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 12.

WHEAT—Owing largely to unfavorable weather in Great Britain and to reduction of crop estimates there, the wheat market here took an early upward swing today. Liverpool quotations were expected to show a decline, but instead scored a material advance. A good deal of notice also was taken of assertions that smallness of the new Kansas wheat crop implies that mills which have depended on Kansas as a source of supply must look elsewhere for many months before the 1926 Kansas crop is available. Chicago opening prices, unchanged to two cents higher, September $1.61 o $1.62 and December $1.59 to 1.59¾, were followed by something of a reaction and then by moderate fresh gains.

Subsequently, the market suffered a setback on account of corn weakness, but rebounded with inspiring suddeness in the last half hour, offerings being scarce and previous sellers stampeding to buy. The close was strong, 2¼ to 4½ net higher, September $1.64⅜ to 1.64½ and December $1.61¾@1.62.

CORN—Moisture in the corn belt tended to ease down the corn market after an advance in sympathy with wheat. Starting at ⅛ to 1⅛c u p, September 1.06 to 1.06⅝, corn declined to well below yesterday's finish, September touching $1.04⅝.

Country offerings to arrive were larger and a further drop in prices took place. The close was unsettled, ½ to 1⅞c net lower, September $1.04 ot 1.04⅝.

OATS—Oats traders took their cue from wheat, rather than corn. Opening at ⅛ to ⅜c g ain. September 41, the oats market continued firm.

PROVISIONS—Provisions pointed up grade despite weakness in the hog market.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.

Heavy liquidation of the oil shares, nine of which sank to new low levels for the year, and extensive accumulation of the southern and southwestern carriers were the contrasting features of today's irregular stock market. General Railway Signal soared nearly 30 points to 319¾, broke to 276 and then rallied to 300. Total sales approximated 1,500,000 shares.

Marked irregularity characterized the opening of today's stock market. General Railway Signal, yesterday's sensational feature, opened five points higher at 295, and Westinghouse Airbrake and Bangor & Aroostook mounted to new high levels for the year. Selling of the oils were resumed, Midcontinent Petroleum dropping a point and Pan-American sagging to a new low level for the year.

Heavy buying of the railroad shares, coincident with a revival of merger and dividend rumors, steadied the list and the main course of prices upward before the season was a half an hour old. Wabash common and preferred were quickly run up over two points each to new peak prices for the year. Good buying also developed in Southern Pacific and Rock Island, which are expected to eventually enter a new combin. General Railway Signal swiftly extended its gain to 20 points by touching 310. Westinghouse Airbrake extended its gain to nearly 6 points at 125½ and Jewel Tea preferred soared 8 points in reflection of the payment of back dividends. Frank G. Shattuck Havana Electric, Davison Chemical, General Baking and Coca Cola all recorded early gains of 2 to 4 points. Foreign exchange opened easy. demand sterling ruling around $4.85 7-16 and French francs around 4.66 cents.

The morning market was a two sided affair, bullish operations in the rails and selected specialties being counteracted by the weakness of the oils and the public utilities. General Railway Siglad crossed General Electric in its flights to higher territory, selling at 319¾ as against 319 for the latter, but General Elteric soon regained its supremacy by touching a record high for all time at 320½, which is fractionally above the highest price ever quoted before the segregation of the Electric Bond & Share properties while General Railway Signal cracked to 308 on realizing.

Accumulation of Wabash was believed to be in expectation of an early announcement regarding merger plans for that railroad.

Call Money renewed at 4¼ per cent. The closing was steady.

By Arthur Brisbane.

The first American fliers forming the new Lafayette squadron have arrived in Casa Blanca in Morocco and will soon be with their French brothers above the fighting lines of the Riffs.

Those young Americans have gone abroad for excitement and to prove their friendship for France. But whether they know it or not, they will do good work for civilization every time they drop a bomb to convince the Riffs that Mohammed and his teachings do not represent the Almighty.

Much more important to civilization than the Smyrna earthquakes are the Mohammedan uprisings in the east and in Africa.

French flying machines probably will establish order in northern Africa. And in doing so the French will render service to civilization.

The world cannot afford to see any increase in the power of those that follow Mohammed as the prophet, teaching and believing his bloody doctrines.

The outbreaks against the French in Syria are serious. Individual bodies of French troops have been wiped out by surprises. The French with flying machines and greater efficiency, can be relied upon to adjust matters in Syria. Those ancient regions around Damascus will know what modern science means.

This country should remember that France is making civilization's fight and the fight for white-man rule on earth in her African and eastern fighting.

John L. Lewis, head of the coal-miners, writes, in rather sarcastic vein, to the mine owners:

The supply of coal and the price of coal are matters important to the public. Mr. Lewis believes that the arbitrators would be "framed" against him. He may be right and may be wrong. That has nothing to do with the right of the public to have something to say about coal mines, coal prices, and coal strikes.

Mr. Lewis doesn't help his side, or the effort of the men to get higher pay with their "checkoff" to strengthen the union, when he treats the question of coal supply as a matter for sarcastic jest. It's serious to the public.

Norman Hapgood cables from Europe alarming information about conditions in Russia, particularly in the Ukraine, and the danger of Jewish massacres on a huge scale.

There is only too good reason to fear that an end of the bolshevik government, which could be brought about only by an outbreak on the part of the peasants, might be followed by fearful outrages, including Jewish massacres.

However, bolshevism shows no signs of failing, just now. The peasants owe to bolshevism the fact that they own land on which they once worked as miserable slaves.

Bolshevist leaders are, many of them, Jews, and in addition all of them are anxious to make a good appearance before the world.

Every year saved in adult life means an increase in the nation's wealth. It costs money to bring up children, as well as effort and anxiety.

In the state of New York the average age has risen from 24 years in 1840 to 30 years now. This means that common sense, science and good doctors have added six years to the average age of every individual.

The years are added in the money earning period. Suppose the average adult's work is worth to his nation $10 a day, and that's a low estimate. You can figure out for yourself how much it means in money to add six years to every adult's life.

Cut $10 to $5, cut that amount in half to allow for women and others not working, and you still have a saving, an increase of national wealth to the tune of 75 billions of dollars a year.

Children in Great Britain are bigger than they were, desks in the schools are too small for this generation. That's good news for the future of the British empire.

British children now get outdoor exercise instead of spending their youth in mills, as they used to do. The British government took the hint when it became every day harder to find men of right size for the army. The British race was evidently growing smaller.

They decided that starving children to keep them small enough to go down chimneys, and grinding up children in mills and factories was a bad idea.

They passed laws to stop that. We tried to pass such laws in this country, but our distinguished supreme court told us it wasn't constitutional to interfere with the exploitation of child life.

This country is going to have a commercial flying fleet soon, and fortunately there isn't any doubt about it.

President Coolidge, with his urging, has caused high finance to become interested.

Henry Ford, the ablest manufacturer in the world, is building machines of the best modern type, and plans to produce the "foolproof" flying machine. What he plans he usually does.

John Hays Hammond and others are interested in a $50,000,000 commercial flying corporation to be managed, perhaps, by Owen B. Young, the financial genius of the Dawes plan.

The United States atmosphere will soon be full of flying machines, then goodbye worry about foreign attack.

Ask Pardon For McCray

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(A. P.)—Attorney General Sargent was asked by an Indiana delegation today to recommend a pardon for Warren T. McCray, former governor of Indiana, who has served about fifteen months of a ten year sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary imposed after his conviction on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

GOOD AUDIENCE AT ASSEMBLY

Many Hear Thurman 'Dusty' Miller's Humorous Lecture Despite Rain.

Rain did not keep a large audience from attending Epworth assembly Tuesday evening, hearing a concert by the International Singing orchestra and a hufmorous lecture by Thurman "Dusty" Miller, an Ohio newspaper man.

Costumed as gay Mexicans and singing, playing or doing both at the same time, the orchestra presented a pleasing program, included were cello, violin and voice solos The following numbers were given: Barcarolle, La Paloma, O, Come to the Fair, Yearning for You, Didn't It Rain, The Swan and The Rosary.

Introduced by O. J. Fee, "Dusty" Miller arose to talk on no subject in particular but to tell a lot of quaint stories and slip in a little advice on the side.

Fate in Our Own Hands.

"The fate of your town rests on you," he said. "If you can't make things burn up here, you'll never be able to do it any place else.

"Do things when you don't have to do them and you'll set a real example. Your success and mine is nothing more than the measure of our service.

"There are three ins that keep people of towns out: Indecision, indifference and intolerance. "Guessing right fifty-one times out of a hundred will make a success' someone said, but you can't guess right if you don't decide on it. So many people speak always of 'they' doing things or 'their' school, church or enterprise. Make it 'our' school or town or it won't amount to much. As to intolerance, there are many people who are willing to do things but it must be done their way. Like a much married man said: 'I'd like to live as one, but I can't make her understand that I'm the one.'"

You can't get along without people Mr. Miller declared, and therefore one of the main studies should be that of learning how to get along with them.

THE WEATHER

The storm center is now over southeastern Iowa and heavy rain has fallen in southern Iowa, eastern Missouri and northern Illinois, and lighter rain in northern Iowa, Nebraska, the Dakotas, and on the eastern slope of the Rockies. Moderately high pressure over the northern Rockies is attended by clearing and cooler weather in the mountain states and the upper Missouri valley. The weather is mostly fair and temperatures moderate in eastern and southern states.

THE LINCOLN STAR Classified Advertising

The Lincoln Star is a member of The Association of Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers, which includes leading newspapers throughout the country, and has for its aim the elimination of fraudulent and misleading classified advertising. The Lincoln Star, as well as every other member of the Association, endeavors to print only truthful Want Ads and will appreciate having its attention called to any advertisement not conforming to the highest standard of honesty.

Advertising offered for irregular insertions takes the one time rate. No ad is taken for less than a basis of three lines.

Ads ordered for seven times and stopped before expiration will be charged for only the number of times the ad appeared and adjustment made at the rate earned.

Special rates for yearly advertising upon request.

Careful attention given to mail orders. Cash in full must accompany out-of-town advertisement.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING INFORMATION.

All ads are restricted to their proper classifications and to the regular Lincoln Star style of type. The publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

Errors in advertisement should be reported immediately. The Star will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES.

Daily rate for consecutive insertions. Count six average words to a line. Cash rate per line per day. These special cash rates apply to advertising paid for within seven days after last insertion.

What Do You Mean—"Lost"?

If you mean that you've missed some valuable article, but haven't advertised for it in the Star—don't say "lost!"

Just say you don't know where it is—and call B1234 at once.

Most people know the practical value of this plan. They've learned that a Lost ad in the A-B-C Classified columns is the quickest, surest way of recovery—whether they've lost a diamond pin or a bob-tailed dog.

These little ads operate on a system like this. If an honest person finds what you lose, he or she will watch for your ad in the Star—and nine out of every ten people are honest.

The results produced by A-B-C Lost ads all the time are unusual. You can use one with the feeling that it will accomplish its purpose, if that is possible.

Whenever you discover a loss—call B1234!

What Do You Mean—"Lost"?

If you mean that you've missed some valuable article, but haven't advertised for it in the Star—don't say "lost!"

Just say you don't know where it is—and call B1234 at once.

Most people know the practical value of this plan. They've learned that a Lost ad in the A-B-C Classified columns is the quickest, surest way of recovery—whether they've lost a diamond pin or a bob-tailed dog.

These little ads operate on a system like this: If an honest person finds what you lose, he or she will watch for your ad in the Star—and nine out of every ten people are honest.

The results produced by A-B-C Lost ads all the time are unusual. You can use one with the feeling that it will accomplish its purpose, if that is possible.

Whenever you discover a loss—call B1234!

CHAPTER XLV

Of course what Euphemia had said was simply absurd Rhoda mused when her friend had left her alone It was ridiculous to suppose for an instant that Wilhelmina Layton regarded her as a rival in Raphael Scott s affections What if he himself had suggested that his former pupil might be jealous? A man oft made states A was in deciding to remain in New York Wilhelmina did not enter into Phe la Thorne s calculations

So she told herself And so de perately self deceived may one be that she did not appreciate that at the bottom of her heart lay the remembrance of what Euphemia had told her Yet she did not let it rise far enough in her consciousness to acknowledge it as a factor in her plans for the holidays

She had not written to Mark Wentworth for several weeks Something moved her to do so now her note was brief

I am not coming home for Christmas she began without further preliminary than the Dear Mark with which her epistle started Please say nothing of this to Mother until she speaks of it herself I will try to write to her this evening—if I have time

That I [illegible] spare from my work is my main reason for not coming home My music is my profession you see and I have no more right to neglect it than a do to would have to neglect his practice You are so conscientious that I fancy you will understand my position"

She stopped and re read that last sentence It pleased her as she recalled what her mother termed Mark s fine principles

Of course I shall think of you all She continued and of the jolly times we used to have I hope you will have a good Christmas I am sure you will I do not know when I shall see you You spoke once of coming down to New York some time I do not understand how you can stay away from this wonderful city If you do ever let me know far enough ahead to make this trip be sure to look me up

After a few more general remarks she finished the epistle by the statement that she remained sincerely his friend Rhoda

She did not wish to hurt this man who loved her—but he was singularly lacking in imagination If he really cared for her would he not have come to see her here Her mother had written that if she—Rhoda—wanted to see Mark Wentworth in New York she would probably have to ask him to come down That she would never do

She did not want him to come now anyway He would not admire her new friends Not that he would express disapproval of them But he would wonder what she would see in them And she was certain that Raphael Scott musician and radical would not admire Mark

For an instant she experienced a slight flash of resentment as she thought of the possibility of Raphael's daring to criticize Mark Wentworth Then as she remembered her teacher s character, she laughed at her folly He was different from other men with his own way of looking at things He could not be judged by the standards by which one judged ordinary people She had to remind herself of this occasionally when not in his presence When with him, his [illegible] blunted her critical faculty Now that she saw him constantly she was seldom entirely free from the charm that he seemed to cast over all with whom he came in contact It was this charm that made Wilhelmina seek him out even when he showed little desire for her society

The double knock she had learned to recognize as Raphael s made her start

Come in she called without rising from her desk

The door opened Scott hesitated on the threshold

Oh—writing are you? he asked Then I will not disturb you I was just going to speak to you for a moment

Come on in she urged You do not disturb me I have just finished one letter and have not yet begun another

He crossed the room and stood by her The envelope which she had addressed to Mr Mark Wentworth lay face up on her desk She saw Scott s eyes light on it Then he glanced away

I just came in to ask if you had reached any decision on the matter we were talking about a while ago he explained I mean—do you think you will be here for the holidays Forgive me if I seem impertinent—but I am naturally interested

Yes she dropped her eyes that he might not see the gleam of pleasure produced by his admission I have decided to stay here for Christmas

I am glad he said He remained standing looking down at her I hope I did not show too plainly how much I hoped you would stay

She shook her head If so I did not notice it she replied with a little laugh that she hoped sounded natural

I am disturbing you at your writing he said You have other letters to write?

Only one other There s no hurry about that

He seemed not to hear her He touched her hair lightly with his long delicate fingers

What lovely hair you have! he remarked It is lovelier too since you have cut it That natural wave in it is perfect and now one can see the outline of your beautiful head

I am thankful she said with another nervous laugh that since I have bobbed my hair I have a natural wave or curl so that I need not undergo a permanent one

So am I he agreed By the way is your mother opposed to bobbed hair

She probably is but she has not said so she answered I wrote her that I had bobbed mine and she made no comment She might if she saw it

Well Scott turned toward the door I must be going I came in as I said to see what your plans are I wanted to know before committing myself to any definite scheme for spending Christmas So long Honey

When the door closed behind him a sudden idea assailed the girl Perhaps Wilhelmina Layton who had just been in his studio had suggested some scheme for Christmas In accepting or rejecting it the teacher had wanted to be sure what Rhoda s plans were

For an instant the little country girl did not know whether she was vexed at Wilhelmina or flattered by Scott s hesitation Before she could be sure of her own reactions the door of her room opened suddenly and Wilhelmina Layton looked in

Come on she said without farther preamble Phemie and I are going out to dinner and to a movie afterward Dutch treat! Oh let your writing go You can do it at some other time

Minerva's Mail
Take Your Troubles To Minerva

Wants A Change

Dear Minerva I have been a reader of your Mail for some time but this is my first letter to you and I know you will give me your usual good advice

I am a girl twenty two years old and since I finished High school three years ago I have been staying at home helping mother and also learning how to cook and sew I have begun of late to feel that I want a change My pals have all gone away to school or else have married and moved [illegible] I practically without chums

I was wondering Minerva if I could get in touch with some girl through your Mail one that feels as I do and wishes to get away for a while and find some kind of work

Could you suggest some kind of work that we might both take up together? For my part I would prefer that we travel

I read your answer to Would be Wise and you spoke of a school friend of yours who runs a ranch Please Minerva will you tell me more about her and where she has her ranch? How I would love to be with her and help her care for the chickens and to be owner of fine horses is my greatest desire

If any girl wishes to correspond with me and might be interested in traveling or picking up some kind of work I will forward my name to Minerva Miss Billy

A Your ambitions are so vague Billy that there isn t much I can give you in the way of advice

Better look for the opportunities at hand about you rather than yearn for some far away adventure

Opportunities are often given a girl for travel as demonstrator of a commercial object or as an agent or canvasser which taken in the from of adventure are interesting and sometimes lucrative

If are truly interested in ranching or farming save your money study farm pamphlets and find you a pal at hand to go in with you on the venture

The friend I told of who has a large chicken ranch has friends of her own to help her in the venture and would not be interested in some faraway stranger

CHAPTER XLV.

Of course what Euphemia had said was simply absurd, Rhoda mused when her friend had left her alone. It was ridiculous to suppose for an instant that Wilhelmina Layton regarded her as a rival in Raphael Scott's affections. What if he himself had suggested that his former pupil might be jealous? A man often made mistakes. Anyway, in deciding to remain in New York Wilhelmina did not enter into Rhoda Thorne's calculations.

So she told herself. And so desperately self-deceived may one be that she did not appreciate that at the bottom of her heart lay the remembrance of what Euphemia had told her. Yet she did not let it rise far enough in her consciousness to acquowledge it as a factor in her plans for the holidays.

She had not written to Mark Wentworth for several weeks. Something moved her to do so now. her note was brief.

"I am not coming home for Christmas" she began without further preliminary than the "Dear Mark" with which her epistle started. "Please say nothing of this to Mother until she speaks of it herself. I will try to write to her this evening—if I have time.

"That I have so little time to spare from my work is my main reason for not coming home. My music is my profession, you see, and I have no more right to neglect it than a doctor would have to neglect his practice. You are so conscientious that I fancy you will understand my position."

She stopped and re-read that last sentence. It pleased her as she recalled what her mother termed Mark's "fine principles."

"Of course I shall think of you all," She continued, "and of the jolly times we used to have. I hope you will have a good Christmas. I am sure you will. I do not know when I shall see you. You spoke once of coming down to New Y— some time. I do not understand how you can stay away from this wonderful city. If you do ever tear yourself from home long enough to make this trip, be sure to look me up."

After a few more general remarks, she finished the epistle by the statement that she remained sincerely his friend, Rhoda.

She did not wish to hurt this man who loved her—but he was singularly lacking in imagination. If he really cared for her would he not have come to see her here? Her mother had written that if she—Rhoda—wanted to see Mark Wentworth in New York, she would probably have to ask him to come down. That she would never do!

She did not want him to come now anyway. He would not admire her new friends. Not that he would express disapproval of them. But he would wonder what she would see in them. And she was certain that Raphael Scott, musician and radical, would not admire Mark.

For an instant she experienced a slight flash of resentment as she thought of the possibility of Raphael's daring to criticize Mark Wentworth. Then as she remembered her teacher's character, she laughed at her folly. He was different from other men, with his own way of looking at things. He could not be judged by the standards by which one judgedinary people. She had to remind herself of this occasionally when not in his presence. When with him, his personality, his magnetism, blunted her critical faculty. Now that she saw him constantly she was seldom entirely free from the charm that he seemed to cast over all with whom he came in contact It was this charm that made Wilhelmina seek him out even when he showed little desire for her society.

The double knock she had learned to recognize as Raphael's made her start.

"Come in!" she called without rising from her desk.

The door opened. Scott hesitated on the threshold.

"Oh—writing, are you?" he asked. "Then I will not disturb you. I was just going to speak to you for a moment."

"Come on in," she urged. "You do not disturb me. I have just finished one letter and have not yet begun another."

He crossed the room and stood by her. The envelope which she had addressed to "Mr. Mark Wentworth" lay face up on her desk. She saw Scott's eyes light on it. Then he glanced away.

"I just came in to ask if you had reached any decision on the matter we were talking about a while ago," he explained. "I mean—do you think you will be here for the holidays? Forgive me if I seem impertinent—but I am, naturally, interested."

"Yes," she dropped her eyes that he might not see the gleam of pleasure produced by his admission. "I have decided to stay here for Christmas."

"I am glad," he said. He remained standing, looking down at her. "I hope I did not show too plainly how much I hoped you would stay."

She shook her head. "If so, I did not notice it," she replied, with a little laugh that she hoped sounded natural.

"I am disturbing you at your writing," he said. "You have other letters to write?"

"Only one other. There is no hurry about that."

He seemed not to hear her. He touched her hair lightly with his long, delicate fingers.

"What lovely hair you have!" he remarked. "It is lovelier, too, since you have cut it. That natural wave in it is perfect, and now one can see the outline of your beautiful head."

"I am thankful," she said, with another nervous laugh, "that, since I have bobbed my hair, I have a natural wave or curl, so that I need not undergo a 'permanent' one."

"So am I," he agreed. "By the way, is your mother opposed to bobbed hair?"

"She probably is, but she has not said so," she answered. "I wrote her that I had bobbed mine, and she made no comment. She might if she saw it."

"Well," Scott turned toward the door, "I must be going. I came in, as I said, to see what your plans are. I wanted to know before committing myself to any definite scheme for spending Christma. So long, Honey!"

When the door closed behind him a sudden ideal assailed the girl Perhaps Wilhelmina Layton, who had just been in his studio, had suggested some scheme for Christmas. In accepting or rejesting it, the teacher had wanted to be sure what Rhoda's plans were.

For an instant the little country girl did not know whether she was vexed at Wilhelmina or flattered by Scott's hesitation. Before she could be sure of her own reactions, the door of her room opened suddenly and Wilhelmina Layton looked in.

"Come on!" she said without farther preamble. "Phemie and I are going out to dinner and to a movie afterward! Dutch treat! Oh let your writing go! You can do it at some other time."

Instead of huntin' your brothers,
Go home, says he, and wear the
You tried to fit on others.

"My wife she midged and Brown
he winked,
And there was a lot of smilin',
And lots of lookin' at our pew,
It sot my blood a bilin'.
Says I to myself,
"Our minister is gettin' a little bitter
I'll tell him when the meetin's out;
I'll tell him I am not such a critter."

Help for Nervous Women

It has often been said that only a woman can understand what nervous women endure. Most cases of nervousness, sleeplessness, mental depression, headaches, backaches, fretting and worrying have their origin in some feminine ailment that will readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, which for over forty years has been restoring women of America to health and strength. Merit alone could have stood such a test.—Advertisement.
